The committee of the last Assembly on the re-organization of the Board of Home Missions presented a report, which was read and referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures. This report is as follows:

REPORT ON THE RE-ORGANIZATION OF THE BOARD OF HOME MISSIONS.

In accordance with the instructions of the last General Assembly, the undersigned, the Committee on the Overture of the Presbytery of Mansfield, have prepared the following report, and hereby lay it before you, that the "several Presbyteries may present their views on the subject to the next General Assembly."

REPORT.

To the Twenty-first General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church of North America, to meet at New Wilmington, Pa., May 28th, 1879, the undersigned, a committee appointed by the Twentieth General Assembly, respectfully report:

The Presbytery of Mansfield memorialized the last General Assembly, asking that "a change be made in the method of carrying on home mission work." The undersigned were appointed to "perfect a plan by which the change proposed may be carried out," and were instructed to publish their report in the papers of the church by the 1st of February, so that the Presbyteries might present their views on the subject to the next Assembly.

The Presbytery of Mansfield submitted to the last Assembly for its consideration the following principles in relation to home mission work (Minutes 1878, page 570):

"1. Vacancies which do not require aid should be carefully distinguished from mission stations, and unsettled ministers and licentiates from home missionaries.

"2. Vacancies and unsettled ministers and licentiates not enrolled as missionaries, should be left entirely under the control of their own Presbyteries.

"The first should not look to the Board of Home Missions for supplies, nor the second for appointments. That Board should be responsible for neither.

"3. A corps of home missionaries should be organized who should be carefully selected, and who would agree to be subject to the appointment of the Board and Assembly, and who should receive fixed, uniform and liberal salaries.

"4. Missionaries alone should be appointed to mission stations.

"5. Mission stations should pay their contributions for the support of the gospel directly to the treasury of the Home Mission Board."

These principles the last Assembly was disposed to regard with favor, but did not pass a final judgment on them. It appears to the committee to be unwise to draw up regulations for putting this scheme into operation until it receives the formal approbation of the church. Further, there is now pending before the church a measure for re-organizing the Boards, which the last Assembly pronounced "radical," and "revolutionary to some extent."

It is evident that the plans suited to the Boards as now organized would necessarily be very different from those which would be necessary if the changes proposed by the First Presbytery of Ohio be adopted. Pending this question, it seems to the committee, therefore, unnecessary, as yet, to attempt to draw up working plans. Still further, such plans should evidently be the work of those required to administer them, at least as far as possible. Should they not, therefore, be drawn up by the Board of Home Missions after the question of its organization shall have been fully settled? At the same time, as much progress as possible should be made by the Assembly in settling the principles on which our home mission work shall hereafter be conducted.

The committee therefore recommend the adoption of the following resolutions as embodying "a plan by which the changes proposed by the Presbytery of Mansfield may be carried out."

Resolved, 1. That this Assembly will consider the change proposed by the Presbytery of Mansfield in the method of carrying on the home mission work and pass judgment on the same, and that it be made the first order after the reception and reference of petitions and papers to committees.

2. That, in case the Assembly approves and adopts such changes as may require any modification of the rules and regulations of the Board of Home Missions, this Board be directed to report to the Twenty-second General Assembly, for its consideration, such modifications of, and additions to the existing plan as it may judge necessary.

A memorial from the Presbytery of Caledonia, asking the Assembly to submit to the Presbyteries the following amendment to chapter 5, article 3, section 5, of the Form of Government, "The Synod shall ordinarily convene on its own adjournment," &c., was read and referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

An invitation from the faculty of Westminster College, to visit the college to-morrow morning at 8:15 o'clock, was accepted. It was resolved that when the Assembly adjourns to-day, it adjourns to meet to-morrow at 9:30 o'clock, A. M.

A memorial on dancing from the session of Calcutta, Presbytery of Steubenville, was read and referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.

REPORT OF THE PERMANENT COMMITTEE ON TEMPERANCE.

Your Committee was appointed to "confer with similar committees appointed by other evangelical churches with regard to the best means of securing united effort in the cause of temperance," such Committee to meet at such time and place as may be agreed upon on consultation with the committees of other churches, and report their proceedings to the next (this) Assembly.

Owing to the fact that your Committee received no notice of the appointment of any similar committees from other churches, there has been no meeting during the year, and consequently we have no report of "proceedings" to make.

The Committee on the Judiciary presented the following report on the petition of Mr. John Henry, which was adopted:

REPORT WITH REFERENCE TO THE PAPER OF MR. JOHN HENRY.

The paper purports to be a petition addressed to this Assembly, but on examination is found to be simply a request that the Assembly take notice of certain statements made by the First Presbytery of New York, in an answer made by said Presbytery to an appeal of the petitioner from a decision of the Presbytery, to the Synod of New York, which statements are, in the judgment of the petitioner, "contrary to the principles of the United Presbyterian Church, and subversive of the moral law."

In the judgment of your Committee, the paper, whether it may be termed a petition or a complaint, is not of a character to occupy the time and attention of the Assembly.

We therefore recommend the adoption of the following:

Resolved, That the paper from Mr John Henry be not received.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures presented a report on the transmission of overtures to Presbyteries, which, after discussion, was recommitted.

The Committee on the Judiciary presented the following report on the petition from the session of Calcutta congregation, which was adopted :

REPORT ON DANCING.

The question which this Assembly is asked to answer is the following, viz.: "Is the mingling of the sexes in the dance in a private house, where only the moral and respectable are permitted to participate, a violation of the law of the U. P. Church, when the parties engaged in the dance are members of her communion ?"

In the judgment of your committee the deliverance of the General Assembly in its action of the year 1860, (Digest, page 76,) was intended to define "promiscuous dancing" as one of the "vain and ensnaring recreations" of the men of the world, and that for members of the church to engage in the promiscuous dance, even with one another, is to have fellowship with the world in its sinful recreations. And that said deliverance of the Assembly upon this subject is a distinct and unequivocal disapproval of such practices.

We recommend for adoption the following :

Resolved, That the petitioners be referred to the deliverance of the Assembly in its action upon the subject of amusements, in 1860, as giving a full and explicit answer to their question.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures presented the following report on the transmission of overtures, which was adopted:

REPORT ON THE TRANSMISSION OF OVERTURES.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures respectfully recommend the following action on the transmission of overtures:

WHEREAS, The Assembly of 1870 adopted it as a standing rule of procedure, that no subject shall be handed down in overture to the Presbyteries, except by a vote of two-thirds of the members of the Assembly present: therefore,

Resolved, That any further action on the transmission of overtures is unnecessary.

Pending the discussion of this report, a communication was received from the Associate Synod concerning the distribution of the proceeds of the Speer estate, which was read and referred to a select committee composed of one member from each Synod. The nomination of this committee was referred to the Committee on Nominations.

Resumed the consideration of the report of the Committee on Sabbath School Music, when the following paper was adopted:

RESOLUTIONS ON SELECTIONS OF PSALMS WITH MUSIC.

Inasmuch as the committee appointed by the last General Assembly to prepare and publish a selection of Psalms, set to suitable music, has not yet completed its work; therefore,

Resolved, 1. That we hereby express our high appreciation of the earnestness and diligence with which the committee has addressed itself to this work.

2. That the committee be instructed to carefully revise its work, keeping in view the principle of adhering exclusively to our authorized Psalmody, and publish it without any unnecessary delay.

3. That this committee be instructed to have special reference in all its selections of music to congregational singing, and to avoid such frequent repetitions and responses as are not clearly suggested by the language of the Psalms.

The following persons were appointed the committee to which was referred the communication from the Associate Synod:

Elder S. Templeton, Rev. J. C. Boyd, Rev. T. W. Monteith, Rev. D. Paul, D. D., Rev. W. H. McMaster, Prof. J. C. Hutchison, elder Dr. McCandless, Rev. C. H. Strong.

The Second Clerk reported a historical record of the Presbyteries and Synods of the Associate and Associate Reformed Churches, which was referred to the Special Committee on Old Records.

The Committee on the Judiciary presented the following report on the imposition of the hands of ruling elders in the ordination of ministers, which was adopted:

REPORT ON THE IMPOSITION OF THE HANDS OF RULING ELDERS IN THE ORDINATION OF MINISTERS.

The memorial asks a deliverance upon the question, "Is the imposition of hands by ruling elders, in the ordination of ministers, required or permitted in our Book of Government?"

In our judgment, ordination is valid in the case of ministers only as authorized by Presbytery in constituted capacity.

When so authorized, its administration by the imposition of hands is technically the act of Presbytery, if performed only by the presiding officer in the name and as the exponent of Presbytery.

This appears involved in a strict construction of Book of Government, Part II, Chap. 6, Art. 2, Sec. 7, which also expressly points to a minister as the officer to preside on the occasion; as though in recognition of Part I, Chap. 4, Art. 2, which directly imputes to "teaching elders" the power of ordination, and specifies for them a duty to "ordain successors."

Moreover, our Book, Part I, Chap. 5, Art. 2, Sec. 5, indicates a Presbytery to be duly constituted if composed only of three ministers, and hence competent, without a ruling elder, to authorize and to administer ordination.

It is therefore respectfully submitted, that the imposition of hands on the part of elders not teaching is not required for the ordination of ministers, and as it is not required, and especially in view of the omission from the Book of any indication of such prerogative as pertaining to elders of the second rank, it is technically to be regarded as not permitted.

The following is recommended for adoption:

Resolved, That the question proposed by the Presbytery of Steubenville, as above indicated, be answered in the negative.

It was made the order of the day for to-morrow, immediately after the presentation of papers, to hear Mrs. Hanna on the question of establishing dormitories for the female students in our colleges.

On the request of the chairman of the General Committee of Home Missions, the first, second and third resolutions of part IV of the report of said committee, were referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

Resumed the consideration of the report of the Committee on the Board of Home Missions. This report was adopted, and it is as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON HOME MISSIONS.

The Committee on Home Missions would report that the papers referred to them were the reports of the Board of Home Missions and of the General Committee of Home Missions. To the examination of these documents we have given the attention which our limited time would allow. We deem it unnecessary here to recite the particulars of the work accomplished during the past, or that proposed for the coming year, since these are fully set forth in the printed reports which have been placed in the hands of the members of the General Assembly, and with which they are doubtless quite familiar. It may not here be out of place, however, to refer to some prominent points.

The last General Assembly granted aid to 197 stations, under the care of 43 Presbyteries. In the stations from which reports have been received there is a membership of 10,287, with an average attendance of 17,417. The additions to the church were, on profession of faith, 698, and by certificate 948. In the Sabbath Schools connected with these stations there was an average attendance of 10,376 pupils. The statistical tables show that the number of members, the attendance in the Sabbath Schools, and the amount contributed for the support of pastors or missionaries, are larger than in any previous year. And this increase, it will be borne in mind, is in the face of all those difficulties and discouragements with which missionary congregations and stations have to contend. One-third of these congregations and stations have no buildings, but are compelled to meet for public worship in school houses, rented halls, barns and private dwellings, which are often not only ill suited but very inconvenient and uncomfortable.

The financial condition of the Board is not so encouraging as the phase of the work just noticed. The contributions of the church during the year were so insufficient and so delayed that the Board were unable to meet the claims for services as they became due, and at the close of March last found the deficiency to be over $8,000, which, added to the sum required for the present quarter ending with June 30th, will make $17,500, which amount ought to be in the treasurer's hands before that time.

The report of the Board calls attention to this fact, that owing to the growing difference between the appropriations and receipts, we must either contract our Home Mission work or furnish more means for its prosecution. The contributions from all sources for the home work during the year amounted to $31,874.70, an actual decrease of only $696 when compared with the receipts of last year, and an increase of over $2,000 when compared with the year 1877. The present deficiency, therefore, arises from more work having been done and consequently larger demands having been made on the treasury.

The desires and wants of the church for the coming year, as shown in the reports of 54 Presbyteries to the Board, are summed up as follows: Aid was sought by the Presbyteries for congregations and stations under their care to the extent of $46,250, together with the full time of 68 men. The full time also of 115 men was placed at the disposal of the Board.

The report of the General Committee, presented for the adoption of this Assembly, shows that $39,885 was granted for the coming year. The total number of names before the General Committee was 135. No appointments were granted to any minister or probationer for more than nine months. The appointments of some were only for six or three months, and 27 persons received no appointments at all. This is the most painful thought in connection with this deeply interesting and important report, and demands the serious and prayerful consideration of the church.

In looking at the results of Home Mission work for the year, as shown in these reports, while we feel discouraged on account of the lack of funds, we have reason to rejoice and feel grateful on account of the unusual success, but we must not at the same time forget that greater energy and liberality are now demanded of us than ever before. The following resolutions are recommended for adoption:

Resolved, 1. That this General Assembly feels deeply grateful to the great Head of the church for the success which has followed the labors of our pastors and missionaries in various parts of the home field during the past year.

2. That the report of the General Committee of Home Missions, except part IV, be adopted by this Assembly.

3. That ministers, officers and people, and especially wealthy persons, be urged to devise ways of furthering, and to contribute to, the work of Home Missions.

4. That Presbyteries be directed and affectionately urged to seriously inquire at their first regular meeting, after the adjournment of this General Assembly, as to the possibility and practicability of selecting and organizing some new mission station or stations in their bounds in which to utilize the services of those ministers and probationers who are able and ready to work, but who could receive no appointments from the General Committee, and that our congregations and people generally, but especially in the bounds of said Presbyteries, be invited to make special contributions for this purpose.

5. That sessions of vacant congregations in seeking to have their pulpits filled, together with ministers and probationers desiring employment or settlement, be directed to apply to the respective Presbyteries to have their wants supplied, and to also conform to the rules of the General Assembly respecting Home Mission work.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures presented the following report on biennial meetings of the Synod of the Pacific, which was adopted:

REPORT ON BIENNIAL MEETINGS OF THE SYNOD OF THE PACIFIC.

Your committee would respectfully report that the vote of the Presbyteries is as follows: ayes, 699; nays, 24; not voting, 12.

We would therefore recommend the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That the law of the church touching the meeting of Synods be and hereby is, in the case of the Synod of the Pacific, suspended so far as to permit said Synod, until otherwise ordered by the Assembly, or desired by the Synod itself, to meet only once in two years instead of every year.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures presented the following report on the training of ruling elders, which was adopted:

REPORT ON THE TRAINING OF ELDERS.

The Synod of New York memorializes the General Assembly to take such action as, in its judgment, shall be best adapted to secure the uniform and systematic training of ruling elders for their duties before they are ordained.

Your committee fully sympathizes with the Synod in its conviction that ruling elders should, in some way, be thoroughly instructed in the high duties pertaining to their office, but we see many difficulties in the way of imparting such instruction previous to their induction into it. We are of the opinion that the only practicable method of accomplishing the end, aimed at by the Synod, is for each pastor to train his own session. The training of the pastors in the duties of the eldership belongs to our Theological Seminaries. In accordance with these views, we recommend the following action:

Resolved, 1. That the proper professors in our Theological Seminaries be requested to give due attention to the instruction of the students in the nature, duties and responsibilities of the office of the ruling elder.

2. That we recommend each pastor to adopt some plan of systematic instruction by which his session may be trained to the highest possible efficiency in their duties.

3. That we recommend the Faculties of our Seminaries to appoint one or more of their number to prepare and put into the hands of the Board of Publication a manual on the eldership, suitable to be used by pastors in the instruction of their sessions.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures presented the following report on the desecration of the Sabbath by railroad companies, which was adopted:

REPORT ON THE DESECRATION OF THE SABBATH BY RAILROAD COMPANIES.

The committee, appointed by the last Assembly to address a letter to railroad companies on Sabbath desecration, report that the work assigned has been performed. This committee also report a request from Rev. Yates Hickey, Secretary of the International Sabbath Association, for the co-operation of this Assembly in calling a convention at which the friends of the Sabbath may confer together, and devise means for its defence.

We therefore recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That the thanks of this Assembly are due the committee for the faithful and able manner in which the duty assigned it has been discharged.

2. That Revs. James Harper, D. D., William Wishart, D. D., and W. G. Moorehead, D. D., be a committee to co-operate, in all proper ways, with the International Association in securing the better observance of the Sabbath.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures presented the following report with reference to secret societies, which was adopted:

REPORT WITH REFERENCE TO SECRET SOCIETIES.

The position of the United Presbyterian Church in reference to secret societies has been so clearly defined in her standards, and so frequently and positively affirmed by her highest courts, and so widely published through her periodicals, that any other or further action on the subject by the Assembly at this time is unnecessary.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures presented a report on the meetings of Synods, which was amended and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT IN REGARD TO THE MEETINGS OF SYNODS.

The Presbytery of Caledonia memorializes the General Assembly to submit in overture to the Presbyteries the following question: "Shall the first clause of Sec. 5, Art. 3, Chap. 5, of the Form of Government be so changed as to read: 'The Synod shall, ordinarily, convene on its own adjournment'?"

Resolved, That the request of the memorialists be not granted.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures presented the following report on Commissions, which was adopted:

REPORT CONCERNING COMMISSIONS.

The Presbytery of Delaware asks the General Assembly to take into consideration the question of having inserted in our Book of Government and Discipline a chapter on Commissions, defining the nature and duties of a commission, the rules governing their appointment and their procedure, and the method by which their determinations and decisions shall be reviewed and acted on by the courts.

Your committee is of the opinion that some deliverance on the subject of the memorial should be given by the highest court of the church. We therefore recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That ———————— be a committee to take into consideration the question of Commissions, and report to the next Assembly.

2. That, if said committee conclude that a chapter on Commissions should be inserted in the Government and Discipline of the church, it be authorized to prepare and present to the next Assembly such a chapter.

The filling of the blank in the first resolution of this report was referred to the Committee on Nominations.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures presented a report on re-arranging the work of the Board of Home Missions. During the discussion of this report the hour of adjournment arrived, when the Assembly adjourned after prayer by Rev. W. P. McNary.

2 o'clock, P. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Rev. R. T. Wylie.

The roll was called, and the minutes of the last session were read and approved.

A letter from Rev. A. M. Milligan, D. D., delegate from the Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church, was referred to the Committee on Correspondence.

The Clerk of the Synod of Kansas reported that the Presbytery of Concordia was organized within the bounds of that Synod, November 6th, 1878.

Took up the report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures on re-arranging the work of the Board of Home Missions, which was adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT ON RE-ARRANGING THE WORK OF THE BOARD OF HOME MISSIONS.

Your committee beg leave respectfully to report that the vote on said overture is as follows: ayes, 40; nays, 322; not voting, 28. There are twenty-two Presbyteries that either took no action on said overture, or acted on only a certain part or parts of it, or failed to report definitely their votes. But in the opinion of your committee, the sense of the church, as indicated by the votes of the Presbyteries, is against the proposed re-arrangement of the work of the Board of Home Missions.

Therefore we would recommend for adoption the following:

Resolved, That the proposed re-arrangement be not made.

But your committee are of the opinion that some modifications in the method of conducting the work of home missions could be wisely made. We therefore, without expressing any opinion on the merits of the questions involved, recommend the Assembly to take into consideration the propriety of adopting the following resolutions, which have already received the endorsement of the Board and the General Committee of Home Missions.

Resolved, 1. That at its next meeting, and annually thereafter, the General Committee shall designate what missions shall be regarded as special missions, and shall refer such stations to the Board of Home Missions for a given term of years in each case; and it shall be the duty of the Board to make appropriations of money and appointments of missionaries to such missions during the specified term.

2. There shall be added to the General Committee one delegate from the Board of Home Missions, to be elected annually by the Board.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures presented the following report on the consolidation of the Boards of Home Missions, Church Extension and Freedmen's Missions, which was adopted:

REPORT ON THE CONSOLIDATION OF THE BOARDS OF HOME MISSIONS, CHURCH EXTENSION AND FREEDMEN'S MISSIONS.

Your committee would respectfully report that the vote on this overture is as follows: ayes, 97; nays, 543; not voting, 36. Your committee would therefore recommend for adoption the following resolution:

Resolved, That these Boards be not consolidated.

The Committee on Revision presented a report, which, after discussion, was recommitted.

Some time was spent in devotional exercises.

The Committee on the Board of Foreign Missions presented their report. Pending the adoption of this report, the Assembly adjourned after prayer by Rev. M. Morrison.

7:30 o'clock, P. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Rev. S. B. McBride.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

Resumed the consideration of the report of the Committee on the Board of Foreign Missions. Pending the adoption of this report, the Assembly adjourned after prayer by Rev. R. N. Hammond.

TUESDAY.

June 3, 1879, 9 o'clock, A. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Rev. H. P. Jackson.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

It was resolved that during this and all future sessions of this Assembly, speakers, excepting the Secretaries of the Boards and chairmen of committees, be allowed but five minutes, and that no speaker be allowed to speak on any subject more than once, until all have had an opportunity to speak.

The credentials of Rev. J. D. Turino, delegate from the Walden-sian Church of Italy, were read and referred to the Committee on Correspondence. The hearing of this delegate, of Rev. J. A. Myers, delegate from the Associate Reformed Synod of the South, and of Rev. Alexander McWilliam, delegate of the General Synod of the Reformed Church in America, was made the order of the day for this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Resumed the consideration of the report of the Committee on the Board of Foreign Missions, which was amended and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE BOARD OF FOREIGN MISSIONS.

The Committee on Foreign Missions, to which was referred the report of the Board of Foreign Missions, would respectfully report that from a careful review of the work which the Lord has been pleased, through the instrumentality of our church, to carry on during the past year in the foreign field, it is their deep conviction that profound gratitude is due to God from this General Assembly. Both in India and in Egypt there have been encouraging accessions to the church. If there had been the same increase in the church at home in proportion to its membership, and the same number of congregations organized, it would have been regarded as a remarkable epoch in the history of the United Presbyterian Church.

It is gratifying to know that there have been contributed to this cause during the past year not less than $51,351.93. It will be seen also, by a reference to the report of the Board, that the converts from heathenism in the foreign field have given very encouraging evidence of their appreciation of the gospel by the manifestation of a liberal spirit in its support. The contributions in India, though small, have increased five fold, and there has been a large increase in this respect in Egypt.

Another gratifying feature is, that there are no less than nine natives in India, and six in Egypt, who have devoted themselves to the work of the ministry, and are under a course of instruction with special reference to that object. Surely the fact that there are fifteen in the foreign field, in addition to those already at work there, who are expecting soon in their native tongues to proclaim to their fellow countrymen the glad tidings of salvation, should make a deep impression upon our hearts and stimulate us to self-sacrificing efforts in behalf of this cause.

It would seem that both in India and in Egypt the usual educational and evangelistic operations have been carried on during the past year.

It may be noticed that a map, giving at a glance a clear view of the various localities in which our missionaries in India are operating, has been by them prepared and forwarded to the Board, and by the Board handsomely executed and published. It is hoped that copies of this map will find their way into the various Sabbath Schools of the United Presbyterian Church.

It is painful to your committee to notice that, according to the report of the Board, there is a deficiency of $9,219.44 to be provided for in addition to the estimates for the coming year, and this, too, notwithstanding the fact that special notice is taken of liberal contributions made to the cause by various individuals, societies and Sabbath Schools. It is earnestly hoped that during the coming year there will be such a liberality shown by the members of our church as will meet this deficiency. The command, "Owe no man anything," is just as imperative and binding as the injunction, "Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature."

It appears that our brethren in Mansura and Alexandria feel very great need of buildings for their work. The Board, however, in view of the state of the treasury, have not seen their way open to ask the Assembly to make any appropriation for this purpose. May we not, however, express the hope that this pressing want will not be overlooked by the friends of this cause?

There is one fact which demands the earnest and prayerful consideration of this Assembly, and that is the need which there is for a reinforcement of our missions in Egypt and India. The directions of the last Assembly given to the Board to send out new missionaries, owing to their failure to obtain them, have not been complied with. We quote the following in relation to India: "Most earnestly do the Board entreat the Assembly to send out new laborers to this mission, and to send them IMMEDIATELY." The word "immediately" they have written in capitals, from which we infer that the need is most pressing. It is therefore hoped that this entreaty will receive special attention from this Assembly.

The committee would submit to this Assembly the following resolutions recommended by the Board:

Resolved, 1. That the report of the Board be approved.

2. That devout thanksgiving be rendered to God for his continued favor in sparing the lives of our missionaries, and in giving in all parts of our missionary fields encouraging returns for the efforts put forth, and in continuing to raise up so many friends to our work, among whom we would make grateful mention of the Maharajah Dhuleep Singh, of England; to David Stuart, Esq., of Liverpool, and to the various American and foreign institutions and individuals alike that have so generously contributed to us funds and important facilities for carrying forward our great work.

3. That the appointment of Miss Rosa A. McCullough by the Board to the mission in India be confirmed; that it is the deliberate judgment of this Assembly that God, in his providence, is calling loudly for a speedy reinforcement of the India and Egyptian Missions, and we do hereby direct the Board of Foreign Missions to appoint and send out reinforcement to these needy fields; that we are gratified to learn that Rev. and Mrs. Samuel Martin and Miss Eliza F. Johnston have made arragements to return at the earliest time in their power to their respective places of labor.

4. That the following appropriations be made:

To Egypt	$28,465 50
" India	22,000 00
" send out new missionaries	3,000 00
" return any now in this country	1,500 00
" support children " "	1,000 00
" refund money borrowed by the Board	5,000 00
" meet deficit of last year	4,219 44
Miscellaneous	1,200 00
	$66,384 94

Immediately before the final vote adopting this report, the Assembly engaged in prayer and praise.

The Committee on the Board of Ministerial Relief presented the following report, which was adopted:

REPORT ON THE BOARD OF MINISTERIAL RELIEF.

Your committee would respectfully report the following:

I.

We gather the following items of interest from the report of the Secretary of the Board of Ministerial Relief:

1. During the year six aged ministers and the families of eleven deceased ministers have received timely aid from the Board.

2. The Board has mailed printed addresses to one thousand ministers and laymen, and pressed the claims of this fund upon the church.

3. The receipts of the Board have been increased during the last year over the previous year one hundred per cent., while the claims on the fund have been increased in the same ratio—these receipts being $4.400.00.

4. Contributions have been received from nearly all the Presbyteries of the church, and liberal donations have been made by many individuals.

5. An endowment of $15,500 has been already secured and safely invested in government bonds.

6. An increased interest has evidently been awakened among our people in this important Board of the church.

II. THE IMPORTANCE OF THE WORK.

Your committee consider that no demands are made upon the liberality of the members of the church that should receive a more careful and prayerful consideration, and a more liberal response, than the demands of the Board of Ministerial Relief.

Governments pension their disabled soldiers, and provide for the families of those fallen in their defence, and the Church of Christ should pension her aged servants, and provide for the families of those who have given their lives for the promotion of her cause.

III. RESOLUTIONS.

Resolved, 1. That the claims of the fund of the Board of Ministerial Relief be especially commended to the liberality of the church.

2. That special donations be solicited for the endowment of this fund, and that such donations be permanently invested by the Board.

3. That thanks are due the officers and other members of the Ministerial Relief Board for their diligence in attending to the affairs of the Board.

The Committee on Finance presented the following report, which was adopted:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON FINANCE.

The following papers have been put into our hands, viz.: Reports of the Treasurers of the Boards of Home Missions, of Freedmen's Missions, of Church Extension, of Education, and of Ministerial Relief, together with the report of the Treasurer of the Trustees of the General Assembly. These reports, as required by the Assembly, are audited, and their footings are found to be correct.

Statements of the Treasurers of the Boards of Foreign Missions and of Publication have also been put into our hands. These, however, are not reports in due form, but rather statements designed for publication; they are not accompanied by vouchers, and we have no evidence that they have been audited.

The request of the Board of Home Missions for the payment of the expenses incurred in the preparation and printing of blank forms for declarations of trust on the part of congregations receiving aid from the Assembly, we regard with favor, inasmuch as these declarations of trust are made to the Trustees of the General Assembly.

Some other papers, of the nature of bills for expenses incurred in doing the work of the Assembly, have also been referred to us, and carefully examined.

From an examination of the reports before us, your committee have discovered that some of the Presbyteries have not contributed anything during the year to several of the Boards of the church. There seems also to have been a falling off in the contributions to some of the Boards, as compared with last year. We therefore recommend the following:

Resolved, 1. That the conduct of the Treasurers and Boards that have furnished reports be approved.

2. That those Boards, whose Treasurers have failed to furnish reports as required by law, be directed to see that no such failure shall occur in the future.

3. That the sum of three thousand dollars be appropriated to the General Assembly's Fund.

4. That the Principal Clerk be directed to draw warrants on the Treasurer of the General Assembly's Fund as follows:

To Rev. J. F. Hutchison, member of the Committee on Sabbath School Selections and Music, for traveling expenses	$30 00
To Rev. D A. Duff, for the same	5 50
To Stevenson, Foster & Co., for stationery for this Assembly	15 50
To the Committee on Old Records, for printing 200 copies of report	2 00
To Rev. S. Collins, chairman of Committee on Reduced Railroad Fares	3 75
To Rev. W. J. Reid, D. D., chairman of the Committee to prepare Digest	13 30
To the Assistant Clerk	25 00
To incidental and traveling expenses of clerks	11 00
To the sexton of this church, for services rendered during the meeting of this Assembly	20 00
To the Treasurer of the Board of Home Missions, for the amount expended in preparing and printing blank forms

After prayer by Rev. R. S. McClenahan, the Assembly adjourned.

2 o'clock, P. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by elder W. K. Carson.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

A paper on the use of tobacco was read and referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

The consideration of the report of the Committee on the Board of Missions to the Freedmen was made the order of the day for this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

The consideration of the report of the Committee on the Board of Church Extension was made the order of the day for this evening, immediately after the reading of the minutes.

The Standing Committee on Narrative and State of Religion presented the following report, which was adopted:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON NARRATIVE AND STATE OF RELIGION.

The Committee on Narrative and State of Religion report:

1st. That in reading this timely and suggestive narrative, your committee are deeply impressed with the occasion there is on the one hand for devout thanksgiving for the great things God has done for us, whereof our hearts may well be glad, and on the other hand for profound humbling before God and a more faithful and devoted course in the time to come. In view of the great importance of many things referred to in the narrative, and of the fact that comparatively few of our people usually read it, your committee recommend that it be read at some service on the Sabbath or during the week in all the congregations under the care of the Assembly.

2d. That in the removal of so many of our ministers by death, there is an affecting reminder to the Assembly, and to all our ministers, that the end of the time of labor is drawing on, and that each should work with his might; while in the fact that not a single case of discipline has occurred among the 683 ministers of our church, there is a grateful and earnest incentive for all to be faithful still in keeping themselves unspotted from the world.

3d. That in the licensure of twenty-six men, the ordination of twenty-nine, and the installation of sixty-two, there is reason for thankfulness to God that he is raising up laborers for the wide fields under our care. In giving also so many pastors, he is significantly showing his favor to the permanent settlement of his servants, and the duty of the people in every congregation to seek to have their eyes see and their hands support their teachers in the pastoral relation. While on the other hand, in view of the dissolution of this relation in forty-five instances, and of the many unhappy things that too often follow, there is occasion to urge that pastors and people alike will resist every tendency to this, and that they will allow nothing but the clearest indications of duty to lead them to it.

4th. That in the healthful use of the means of grace in so many congregations, and in the revived and elevated tone of piety and of self-consecration which have happily pervaded the theological seminaries during the last session, there have been gratifying tokens for good. In some instances also very happy effects have followed the holding, under Presbyterial direction, of continuous religious services for several days at a time in vacant congregations, and your committee recommend that all the Presbyteries consider the propriety of this, and act upon it in their vacancies and mission stations, and also in settled congregations when the way may be open for it.

5th. That in the Sabbath School work of our church there is much to cheer. In 726 schools, with 7,647 laborers and 65,467 scholars, there is a power of the most momentous import for doing good, and your committee specially recommend that more and more, all who are engaged in this work, will seek, first and last, nothing less than the salvation of every child under their care, and its entire consecration of heart and life to the service of God.

6th. That in the spirit of the narrative, your committee recommend that the Assembly earnestly urge the regular and conscientious attendance of all under its care upon the duties of family worship, stated meetings for prayer, the ordinances of the Lord's house, the bringing up of their children in these ways, and a constant holding of themselves in all their persons, substance and influence at the call of God and his cause, and, further, that the Assembly as earnestly warns against any worldly amusement or conformity that is of doubtful propriety in the light of the gospel, assured that every such thing militates against personal piety, weakens the force of the Christian profession, cripples the church in its constantly demanded warfare with evil, and is offensive to him who will have his church a glorious church, not having spot or wrinkle or any such thing.

In conclusion your committee recommend the following action:

Resolved, That the report of the Permanent Committee on the Narrative be printed and urged upon the serious and earnest attention of all our ministers and congregations.

In regard to the action of Presbyteries on the deaconship, as referred to us, your committee report that only six Presbyteries have reported, and very little has been done. In view of the importance of this office, and especially of having deacons as spiritual officers of the church to take the place of trustees in the management of the temporal affairs of the congregations, the following action is recommended:

Resolved, That all the congregations under the care of the Assembly be instructed to endeavor to have the law of the church in regard to this office carried out, by having deacons ordained and installed in their midst as soon as their circumstances permit.

The Committee on the Judiciary presented a report on the complaint against the action of the Presbytery of Sealkote, concerning bigamy. Pending the adoption of this report, the hour for the order of the day arrived, when the report of the Committee on the Board of Missions to the Freedmen was taken up. This report was adopted, and it is as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE BOARD OF FREEDMEN'S MISSIONS.

Your committee would respectfully report that the annual report of the Board of Freedmen's Missions indicates that the Board, missionaries and teachers have all been doing their work faithfully and efficiently, and that the results are highly encouraging.

The church at Knoxville has received an accession of 15, 7 by baptism. Already the mission is a source of income to the Boards of the church, and in two weekly prayer meetings the work goes on as in a well established congregation.

The college work has met with unusual encouragement, not so much in increased attendance as in results—30 students receiving good certificates, and most of them obtaining employment as teachers. Thus throughout a large community a Christian education is multiplying the church's power and influence.

The Industrial Department, under the management of Mrs. Reed, is proving specially useful, and is much needed among a people of so rude habits of life as the freedmen. They must have not only the preached word, but also instruction in the domestic arts of Christian civilization.

The erection of a cottage for Dr. Reed's family was, we think, a judicious expenditure, and calculated to give permanence to our work.

At Chase City there are two new and encouraging features in connection with the work already progressing among the whites. These are a force of laborers among the freedmen, available without additional expense, and the cessation of all former opposition.

The yellow fever scourge prevented the re-opening of the mission in Vicksburg, as directed by last Assembly, but the field has recently been visited by Dr. S. B. Reed, who found that through five years of neglect three elders and thirty members (colored) have remained faithful United Presbyterians, and now offer to raise $200 for the support of a missionary. The property there is again in our hands, and rented at $25 a month.

Blue Stone and Clarksville, in the bounds of the Stanton congregation, are very inviting fields, with a dense colored population. Both can be operated in connection with work already established. The latter place offers for our occupancy a large brick building, which cost $10.000, together with seven small dwellings, all for $2.000.

The finances of the Board are in good condition, and have been well managed.

In view of the report of this interesting and growing work, your committee offer the following resolutions:

1. That the success of our scant efforts as a church in this wide and needy field is a cause for gratitude to God, and encouragement to go forward.
2. That this peculiar branch of our home mission work be commended to the sympathies and liberality of our people.
3. That work at Vicksburg should be resumed as soon as possible.
4. That an appropriation of $12,800 be made to this Board, viz., $10,000 be granted to support the work already in progress, $800 for a missionary at Vicksburg, and $2,000 for the new stations mentioned.
5. That the Board be encouraged to enlarge the Industrial Department.

Took up the report of the Committee on the Judiciary on the relation of Foreign Mission Presbyteries to the Assembly. This report was adopted, and it is as follows:

REPORT ON THE RELATION OF FOREIGN MISSION PRESBYTERIES TO THE ASSEMBLY.

WHEREAS, It is a fundamental principle in our Presbyterian polity that every subordinate court shall be under the control and subject to the revision of the superior courts; and,

WHEREAS, The Presbyteries of Egypt and Sealkote are isolated and without Synodical connection and control, and therefore their proceedings have not been subject to revision of a superior court; and,

WHEREAS, These Presbyteries, from the very necessity of the case, have practically Synodical powers; therefore,

Resolved, That the Presbyteries of Egypt and Sealkote be directed to submit to each General Assembly a certified copy of their records for revision.

Resumed the consideration of the report of the Committee on the Judiciary, on the complaint against the action of the Presbytery of Sealkote, concerning bigamy. This report was amended and adopted, and it is as follows:

REPORT ON THE MEMORIAL WITH REFERENCE TO THE ACTION OF THE PRESBYTERY OF SEALKOTE CONCERNING BIGAMY.

WHEREAS, There has been no official communication from the Presbytery of Sealkote, either to this Assembly or to the Board of Foreign Missions, in relation to the matter referred to in the memorial of Dr. Barnett; therefore,

Resolved, That the Presbytery of Sealkote be directed to report to the next General Assembly their official action in the matter referred to, and the grounds on which said action was based.

The Special Committee on the Mission to the Chinese, at Los Angeles, presented the following report, which was adopted:

REPORT ON THE MISSION TO THE CHINESE AT LOS ANGELES.

The committee to whom were referred the report of the Presbytery of San Francisco on the mission to the Chinese at Los Angeles, and other papers relating to the same general subject, would respectfully report as follows:

In accordance with the directions of the last General Assembly, the Presbytery of San Francisco has accepted the trust of said mission from the Board of Foreign Missions, and, in accordance with the laws of the State of California, has secured an act of incorporation. As a corporate body, all necessary officers were elected to superintend the mission. Funds arising from the sale of the mission property in China have been placed in the hands of the treasurer of said corporate body, and the bonds required have been placed in the hands of the trustees of the General Assembly. The amount received, together with accrued interest, is $13,316.37. The amount paid to Rev. J. C. Nevin and his co-workers, together with some incidental expenses, is $506.33, leaving a balance in the treasury of $12,810.04; $12,000 of this sum has been loaned on first-class security at 10 per cent. interest per annum. The Presbytery of San Francisco also reports that the work in this mission has been seriously interfered with by the Presbyterians of Los Angeles, who persist in maintaining a Sabbath School exclusively for the Chinese, and also by a minister of that body who conducts a week day evening school for the same people, while it was plainly stated and understood that, so far as Presbyterians are concerned, the United Presbyterian Church should have entire occupancy and control of the field. The Presbytery of San Francisco has laid the matter before the Board of Foreign Missions of the Presbyterian Church, urgently requesting that such interference cease, or the money paid for mission premises be refunded.

The various facts reported and referred have been carefully considered by your committee, and we have agreed to present the appended resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That it is with profound gratitude and joy we record the goodness of the Lord in preserving the lives of our missionary and his helpers, and in giving many evidences of his approval.

2. That according to the request of this Presbytery, presented in their report, the name of this mission be changed from "The Mission to the Chinese at Los Angeles," to "The Mission among the Chinese on the Pacific coast."

3. That this General Assembly heartily endorse the action of the Presbytery of San Francisco, in the steps they have taken to secure the removal of the above mentioned interruptions, or the money paid to be refunded.

4. That $1,600 be appropriated to this mission to carry on the work during the coming year.

Proceeded to the order of the day, when Rev. J. A. Myers, delegate from the Associate Reformed Synod of the South; Rev. Alexander McWilliam, delegate from the General Synod of the Reformed Church in America, and Rev. J. D. Turino, delegate from the Waldensian church in Italy, presented the Christian salutations of the bodies they represented, and the Moderator responded in the name of the Assembly.

After prayer by Rev. Andrew McCartney, the Assembly adjourned.

7: 30 o'clock, P. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Rev. P. Y. Smith.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The Committee on the Board of Church Extension presented their report. Before the adoption of this report, the Assembly, after prayer by Rev. James Crowe, adjourned to meet to-morrow morning, at 8: 30 o'clock.

WEDNESDAY.

JUNE 4th, 1879, 8: 30 o'clock, A. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Rev. J. A. Myers.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

Resumed the consideration of the report of the Committee on the Board of Church Extension. This report was adopted, and it is as follows:

REPORT ON THE BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION.

Your committee would respectfully report: That there have been placed in our hands the following documents, viz., the report of the Board of Church Extension to this Assembly; the various books of the Board, showing its methods of doing its work; a statement from Dr. Blaikie, concerning the condition of the church property in Boston; the report of the Corresponding Secretary, who was directed by the last Assembly to proceed to Boston and make a careful and thorough examination of the property, its condition, its title, its value, &c.; and some letters necessary to the better understanding of the condition of certain interests connected with the work of the Board.

Your committee has given these documents careful consideration, with the following results, viz.:

1. That an examination of the books of the Board, showing its methods of work, convinces us that its work has been prosecuted with such accurateness and system, as would commend itself to every member of the church examining them. The Board certainly deserves high commendation for the system and accurateness with which it has prosecuted its work, as exhibited in these books.

2. The report of the Board. In this report there are several items to which the attention of the Assembly is asked. In general, we would say that good progress has been made in this work during the past year. Very extensive correspondence has been carried on with reference to certain difficult matters that have come before the Board.

While the Board has done much in the way of granting aid to congregations building churches, and to those involved in debt, still very much more could have been done, had the whole amount appropriated by the last Assembly come into its hands.

While the contributions by Presbyteries are considerably in advance of the preceding year, still all the receipts, both for the General and Loan Funds, amount to less than one-half of the sum appropriated last year.

The Board asks that the Assembly define the course to be followed in collecting matured loans from the Loan Fund. It has been making collections, as far as practicable. In many cases it has found it impossible to collect, without greatly crippling, and perhaps crushing the congregation. In a number of cases it has extended the time. We recommend that the Assembly approve the course pursued, and that it should be encouraged to pursue the same course in other cases now before it, and such as may come before it; collecting where it can, without oppression, and extending the time where it seems necessary.

The Board has the opportunity of securing some plans for churches, which it could publish in its annual report at very little cost. We think it would be wise in it to do so.

The Assembly is asked to take specific action, and give direction as to its wishes, with reference to debts of considerable amounts resting upon the church buildings in Chicago, Ill., Lawrence, Mass., and to specify the course to be pursued in the case of the property of the First Church, Boston.

CHICAGO, ILL.

There is a mortgage against this property, amounting to $4,900. The congregation agrees to pay $300 of this, leaving an encumbrance of $4,600. The interest on this has been met, at least in part, by the rent of the basement to the city for school purposes. This source of income will be cut off, after the present year. If this encumbrance was removed, the congregation could turn the amount of interest which it has undertaken to pay towards the support of its pastor. It is believed that if this debt was removed, the congregation would be able, in about two years, to support its pastor without additional aid from the Board of Home Missions. This surely is an end much to be desired.

LAWRENCE, MASS.

It is reported by the Board that "the congregation at this place has been much revived, under the pastoral labors of Rev. R. A. McAyeal, D. D." There is a debt of $4,000 resting upon the church property. A mortgage is held by certain parties altogether outside of our church, who became endorsers in bank when this loan was made. They are becoming restless. The bank is demanding payment, and the endorsers are threatening foreclosure, unless payment is made at once. The congregation undertakes the payment of one-half of this amount, or $2,000, if the Board will meet the other $2,000. This, we think, should be done at once, and thus this property be saved to the congregation and the church.

In view of the above statement of facts, we recommend the following resolutions for adoption:

Resolved, 1. That the work of this Board, not only for the past year, but for previous years, as exhibited in the various documents placed in our hands, be very heartily approved by this Assembly; and its important work commended anew to the sympathies and enlarged contributions of our churches.

2. That the Board continue to pursue the same wise policy it has already adopted, with reference to collections of matured loans from the Loan Fund.

3. That the Board be requested to publish in its annual report a few of the plans for churches in its possession, from plates offered to be furnished to it gratuitously.

4. That the Board be directed to grant to the congregation in Lawrence, Mass., $2,000, in order to lift the mortgage now resting upon their church, and to pay this amount over at the earliest possible date.

5. That the Board be directed to grant to the congregation in Chicago, Ill., a sum not exceeding $4,600, the amount necessary to meet the debt now resting upon their property.

6. That an appropriation of $30,000 be made to this department of the church's work for the next year.

The Committee on Correspondence presented a report, which was amended and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CORRESPONDENCE.

Your committee would respectfully report that we have received a letter from Rev. James Kelso, in which he regrets his failure to attend the meeting of the Associate Reformed Synod of the South, on account of said Synod having met a month earlier than usual, without his knowledge.

We have received a letter from the delegate of General Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church, conveying the congratulations of that Synod, and expressing his regret that sickness in his congregation prevented personal attendance.

Also a letter is at hand from Rev. A. M. Milligan, conveying the fraternal greetings of the Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church.

Your committee offer for adoption the following resolutions:

1. That D. A. Wallace, D. D. be appointed our delegate to the General Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church, to meet in Wooster, O., on the 11th day of June.

2. That J. Y. Scouller, D. D. be appointed our delegate to the Associate Reformed Synod of the South, to meet at Union, Chester Co , S. C., in September next.

3. That the Committee of Conference with the Associate Reformed Synod of the South be continued.

The Committee on Systematic Beneficence presented a report, which was amended and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON SYSTEMATIC BENEFICENCE.

The committee, to which was referred a paper containing a list of congregations contributing to the funds of the church, and resolution 4th in the report of the General Committee of Home Missions to this Assembly, would respectfully submit the following:

That the claims of the church have, to a certain extent at least, received attention during the year among a large proportion of the congregations, is evident from the statistics herewith presented.

Contributions have been made—

To the	Board of	Foreign Missions,	by 613	congregations.
"	"	Home "	" 616	"
"	"	Freedmen's "	" 459	"
"	"	Church Extension,	" 489	"
"	"	Education,	" 405	"
"	"	Ministerial Relief,	" 365	"

247 congregations have contributed to all the funds; 60 have contributed to none; 74 have not reported, while 434 have contributed only in part.

By a comparison of these statistics with the reports of last year, we find an increase of more than 15 per cent. in the number of congregations contributing. However, there is yet room for improvement.

Three serious defects are noticeable: 1. On the part of some, a failure to contribute. 2. On the part of many congregations contributing, an undue partiality. 3. On the part of a large majority, a stinted liberality.

These defects are largely due to the failure of Christians to realize the urgency of the claims of Christ upon them for the support of his cause, and the negligence of pastors and elders in properly presenting these claims to the people.

To correct these evils your committee would recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That the 4th resolution in the report of the General Committee of Home Missions, referred to this committee, be adopted, to wit: "That in the judgment of this Assembly Christians ought not, in their contributions for benevolent and religious purposes, to fall below one-tenth of their (yearly) income."

2. That in order to the systematic carrying out of the above resolution, pastors be affectionately urged to impress upon their people the importance and necessity of every one complying with the direction of the apostle, 1 Cor., 16:2, to "lay by himself in store, on the first day of every week as the Lord hath prospered him," as a part of the worship of the Sabbath, in order that there may be a constant readiness for contributing to the various claims of the Lord's cause when they are presented.

3. That in harmony with the foregoing principles, this Assembly would express it as their judgment that there should be a careful avoidance of all indirect and questionable means of raising money for the Lord's cause.

4. That our people be and are hereby urged to distribute their contributions among the Boards of the church in the ratio of their respective appropriations.

5. That Presbyteries be directed to adopt some plan by which contributions to all the Boards of the church may be secured at least once a quarter, and to report their action in this matter each year to the General Assembly.

A few minutes were spent in devotional exercises.

The Committee on Devotional Exercises presented an additional report, which was amended and adopted. It is as follows:

ADDITIONAL REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON DEVOTIONAL EXERCISES.

The committee recommend the following:

1. That Rev. David Paul, D. D., of the Presbytery of Muskingum, be appointed the Moderator's alternate to preach the opening sermon at the next meeting of the General Assembly.

2. That the next General Assembly spend the first evening of their session in devotional exercises of reading the Scriptures, praise, prayer and conference.

3. Feeling the need of the gracious guidance of the Holy Spirit to give direction to all our deliberations, and believing in the efficacy of united and concerted prayer, we recommend to the churches under the care of the General Assembly to annually observe the same evening as a time of special prayer for the Divine Presence to be with the Assembly in all its actions, and for the outpouring of the Spirit of God upon all our ministers and members, and "upon all flesh," that the whole world may be filled with the glory of the Lord.

The Joint Committee on the Boards of Home Missions and Church Extension presented a report on the Boston church property, which was adopted.

The Committee on Statistics presented a report, which was amended and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON STATISTICS.

The Committee on Statistics respectfully reports that there have been placed in our hands the statistical tables prepared by the Second Clerk, and also a resolution referred by the Assembly, directing us to report on the advisability of printing the statistics for 1879 in separate form.

In regard to the statistical tables, it is gratifying that we can state that they are more full and perfect than in any former year. This improvement is largely due to the commendable efforts of the Clerks of Presbyteries to obtain full reports from congregations.

The Second Clerk calls the attention of the General Assembly to the fact that many cases arise in which members, by removal without certificate or otherwise, have forfeited their membership, but concerning which no action is taken by the session. In some cases these persons are received into other congregations; in others they are lost sight of. A formal process by arraignment on trial, when it is known no answer will be made, seems only a form without any of the good results sought by discipline. Sessions therefore often either allow such to fall away without official act or record, or by summary process without form erase the name from the roll. It is proposed that the General Assembly give some directions in such cases.

The re-arrangement of the statistical tables is also referred to the General Assembly.

With the view of properly disposing of the different matters referred to this committee, we would submit the following resolutions:

1. That sessions be enjoined to exercise a faithful oversight of the congregation, and of every individual member thereof, observing as far as may be possible the conduct of those who remove to other localities, frequently reminding them by letter or otherwise of their duty to continue in the communion and fellowship of the church, and warning them not only of the danger of losing their standing in the church, but of the dishonor they do to religion and the injury they bring upon their own souls.

2. That any member who, after being thus admonished, continues out of the communion of the church for one year without furnishing satisfactory reasons to the session, may be indefinitely suspended and his name stricken from the roll of members.

3. That any member leaving a congregation without applying for the usual testimonials, and remaining away for two years, the session in the meantime having no knowledge of his deportment shall remove his name from the church register.

4. That it is not expedient to publish the statistics in a form separate from the minutes.

5. That the diligence and accuracy of the Second Clerk, in the preparation of the statistics, deserves the notice and commendation of the General Assembly.

The Standing Committee on Sabbath Schools presented their report, which was amended and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE ON SABBATH SCHOOLS.

Your committee are gratified to report greatly increased interest and efficiency in Sabbath School work. Statistical tables covering the last ten years show general progress in results during that time. The following figures will be of interest:

The entire report of the Permanent Committee is worthy of careful attention, and in accordance with their recommendation we present the following resolutions:

1. That the Assembly "address a brief official letter, over the signature of its Moderator and Principal Clerk, to all the churches, urging the parents to secure home study of God's word; home preparation for the lessons of the school; the regular attendance of their children, and, as far as possible, of themselves, upon the sessions of the school, and to bring their children with them to the house of God."

2. That pastors and superintendents be urged to establish normal classes for the special training of teachers, so that our standard of teaching may be raised higher.

3. That the Permanent Committee on Sabbath Schools hereafter consist of nine members, three to serve for one year, three for two years, and three for three years, and three to be appointed each succeeding year to serve for three years.

4. That the thanks of the Assembly and of the committee are due to Drs. James Harper and Robert Stewart, for the preparation of notes during the year.

In addition to the above resolutions of the Permanent Committee, we would submit the following:

1. That Robert Stewart & Co. be requested to furnish scholars' helps, at as little cost as possible, in the form of Quarterlies.

2. That the suggestive questions recommended by the Permanent Committee be prepared by Drs. Reid and Stewart, and published in the Bible Teacher and Quarterlies; and that appropriate questions from the catechism, and selections from the Psalms accompany each lesson.

3. That inasmuch as it is well to support our own enterprises, we recommend the use of Robert Stewart & Co.'s Sabbath School Helps.

4. That the thanks of the Assembly and church are due to the Permanent Committee for their diligence and work, as exhibited in their report.

5. That the following persons constitute the Permanent Committee for the ensuing year:

Rev. J. S. Sands, Rev. J. A. Gordon, elder T. J. Gillespie—3 years.
Rev. J. M. Fulton, Rev. E. S. McKitrick, elder A. P. Burchfield—2 years.
Rev. D. S. Littell, Rev. W. T. McConnell, elder H. J. Murdock—1 year.

The Committee on Nominations presented a report, which, after discussion, was re-committed.

The Committee on the Board of Publication presented a report.

Before the adoption of this report, the Assembly, after prayer by Rev. J. S. Turnbull, adjourned to meet at 1:30 o'clock.

1:30 o'clock, P. M.

The Assembly met and was opened with prayer by Rev. J. C. Taggart.

The calling of the roll was dispensed with. The minutes of the last session were read and approved.

The following resolution of instructions to the Boards was adopted:

RESOLUTION OF INSTRUCTIONS TO THE BOARDS.

Resolved, That the Boards of Home Missions, and Church Extension, and Foreign Missions be authorized to send their Secretaries to any Synod, Presbytery, or congregation of the church, when in their judgment the interests committed to these Boards may require such visits, and that they report the same to the Assembly.

The vote adopting the report of the Joint Committee on the Boards of Home Missions and Church Extension on the Boston church property was reconsidered, when this report and the whole business to which it relates were referred to the Trustees of the General Assembly, the Board of Home Missions, and the Board of Church Extension, with instructions to take such steps as may be necessary to maintain the congregation and protect the property for the present year, and report to the next Assembly their judgment as to the final disposition of this mission.

Resumed the consideration of the report of the Committee on the Board of Publication. This report was amended and adopted, and it is as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE BOARD OF PUBLICATION.

The report of the Board, which was the only paper referred to your committee, presents nothing special for the consideration of the Assembly. From this report it would appear that the Board has endeavored faithfully to carry out the recommendations of previous Assemblies in regard to furnishing a literature for our Sabbath Schools and congregations from the productions of our own members—but apparently without much success as yet. It were useless to repeat these recommendations year after year, except to call the attention of the church to the matter, which is sufficiently done by the publication of the report of the Board in the minutes of the Assembly.

In regard to the publishing of notes or commentaries on the Bible lessons, your committee is of the opinion that it is better left to private enterprise, and any recommendations respecting the matter belong properly to the Committee on Sabbath Schools.

It appears also, from the report, that only a little over one thousand dollars was contributed by individuals and congregations to this Board to "enable it to aid mission stations, weak Sabbath Schools, destitute persons, &c., by donations of books and tracts." In order to render these contributions effective in circulating the Bible and a pure literature among our own people and in destitute places or mission stations, it is suggested by the Board that a system of colportage ought to be organized. This can only be effected by carrying out the regulation already in force (see Digest, page 174), requiring the establishment of a depository or depositories in each Synod, at a place designated by the Synod.

In connection with the publication of the minutes of the Assembly, your committee would take occasion to suggest the importance of having these minutes more generally circulated among the families of the church for the information of the people. The great difficulty in the way of promoting such circulation is the matter of expense, or the price at which these minutes are sold. There is no doubt but that a much larger number could be sold if they could be furnished at lower cost, and on the other hand that if a larger number could be sold, they could be furnished at a greatly reduced price per copy. It has been the custom of some of the Boards to publish their reports for gratuitous distribution, at a very heavy expense. If these reports, somewhat condensed, could be published with the minutes, and the Board of Publication authorized to publish the minutes at a nominal price, we believe that the great object of giving information to the people respecting the work of the church would be gained with perhaps less cost.

We recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That the action of the Board during the past year, as indicated by its report, be and hereby is approved.

2. That this Assembly reaffirms the action of previous Assemblies commending this Board to the liberality of the people to enable it to give aid to mission stations, &c., by donations of books and tracts, and that the sum of $3,000 is hereby appropriated for this purpose.

3. That the Board is hereby directed to carry out the regulation adopted in 1863, (see Digest, p. 174) and establish as soon as practicable depositories in the various Synods, with a view to supplying our people with a sound literature, and inaugurating a system of colportage.

4. That the Board of Publication be instructed to report to the next General Assembly its judgment as to the publication and distribution of the minutes of the Assembly.

The Committee on Revision presented the following report, which was adopted:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON REVISION.

The following printed minutes and paper have been referred to the Committee on Revision: The minutes of the Twentieth General Assembly, the minutes of the Synods of New York, Ohio, Illinois, Kansas, Iowa, Pittsburgh, The First Synod of the West, and The Second Synod, and a paper from the Clerks of the Assembly, asking from what fund the expense of binding the official records should be paid.

1. The minutes of the General Assembly appear to be correct, and are properly certified.

2. The General Assembly has authorized the Clerks of the Synods to preserve printed instead of manuscript copies of their minutes; but in order to make the official copies authentic, it is necessary that they be certified over the written signature of the Clerk. (See Digest, p. 153.) The Clerks of the Synods of Iowa, the First Synod of the West, and the Second Synod, have failed to sign the official copies sent to the Assembly for review. With these exceptions, the business of the various Synods, as far as your committee is able to judge, has been done in accordance with Presbyterial order, and the minutes have been neatly and correctly printed.

3. It would add to the usefulness of these minutes, and materially facilitate the work of revision, if carefully prepared indexes were appended to the minutes of the Synods.

4. The Committee on the Preservation of "Old Records" has taken steps to have the official minutes of the Synods bound for preservation, and it would be very much better to have these volumes bound in uniform size.

In view of these things, your committee recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That the minutes of the last General Assembly, and the minutes of the various Synods named above, be approved.

2. That the General Assembly hereby recommends to all the Synods to have their minutes published on paper of the same size as that on which the minutes of the General Assembly are published, and to have carefully prepared indexes appended to them.

3. That the expense of binding the official minutes for preservation be defrayed out of the Assembly Fund.

The special committee on the communication from the Associate Synod, in reference to the distribution of the proceeds of the Speer estate, presented the following report, which was adopted :

REPORT ON THE COMMUNICATION FROM THE ASSOCIATE SYNOD.

Your committee, to whom was referred the communication of the Associate Synod in reference to the disposition of a portion of the proceeds of the Speer estate, would respectfully submit the following :

WHEREAS, The Associate Synod has by a unanimous vote requested this Assembly to place a portion of the proceeds of the Speer estate at the disposal of the Theological Seminary at Xenia, for the support of pious young men who may need assistance while preparing for the gospel ministry, as per the terms of the will of the late Daniel Speer; and

WHEREAS, These funds were bequeathed to the Synod of the Secession Church, by the said Daniel Speer, and by the said Synod transferred to the Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church in 1870; and

WHEREAS, It may be presumed that the late Daniel Speer had in view the Theological Seminary of the Secession Church, then located at Canonsburg, as the channel through which needy candidates for the ministry should receive the benefit of his legacy; and

WHEREAS, The said Seminary did receive and pay out to her students the portion of the legacy intended for such purpose, many years prior to the transfer of these funds to the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church; and

WHEREAS, More than ten thousand dollars of accrued interest have been paid over to the Board of Education by the trustees of the Speer estate ; therefore,

Resolved, That the Board of Education be directed to pay over to the Board of Trustees of the United Presbyterian Theological Seminary at Xenia, Ohio, the sum of Six Thousand Dollars out of the funds received by said Board of Education from the Speer estate, to be held by said Board of Trustees of Theological Seminary as a permanent fund, the income ONLY of which shall be used for the support of pious young men who may need assistance while preparing for the gospel ministry—in strict compliance with the terms of the will of the late Daniel Speer, by which will these funds have reached the church.

The Committee on the Judiciary presented the following report respecting the office of elders and deacons, which was adopted :

REPORT ON THE DUTIES OF RULING ELDERS AND DEACONS.

Your committee has failed to discover any ambiguity in our Book of Government defining the duties of the ruling elder and the deacon.

The following resolution is therefore recommended for adoption :

Resolved, That the memorialist be referred to the Book of Government, chapters 5 and 6, as defining the duties of these offices with sufficient clearness.

The Committee on the Board of Education presented a report, which was amended and adopted. It is as follows :

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

There have been referred to your committee the report of the Board of Education, the names of those licensed during the year, and the names of beneficiaries. In accordance with the action of 1875, aid was granted to fourteen students, thirteen of these theological and one literary. The aid granted last year was $1,975. It is gratifying to know that this Board is free from financial embarrassment.

As the number of licensures by Presbyteries comes under the more immediate supervision of the Synods, and is presented to the Assembly through other committees, there seems to be no necessity for continuing reports on this subject.

We present the following for your adoption:

Resolved, 1. That the action of the Assembly of 1875, limiting the beneficiaries of this Board to theological students, be and hereby is reaffirmed.

2. That no student addicted to the use of tobacco in any form shall be granted aid by this Board.

3. That the action of the Assembly of 1873, requiring "Presbyteries to report to the General Assembly the names of persons licensed during the year, and to give account in each case of the number of sessions spent at the Theological Seminary and the training given by the Presbytery itself," be annulled.

4. That the Assembly direct Presbyteries to have the several congregations under their care contribute to this Board.

5. That $2,000 be appropriated to this Board for the coming year.

The Special Committee on Women's Missionary Societies presented the following report, which was adopted:

REPORT ON WOMEN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETIES.

A paper from the "United Presbyterian Association of Pittsburgh and Allegheny" concerning the founding of a United Presbyterian Orphanage in the city of Allegheny, was referred.

It is submitted, that however praiseworthy this enterprise may be, and it is not to be understood that its laudableness is in any wise called in question, the institution is a sectional and local one, the creature of individual effort; that it is under the management of a local board, in no way responsible to any court of the church; and that there is nothing to prevent the claims of the institution, as an individual enterprise, being brought before the Christian public; therefore,

Resolved, That no action on the part of the General Assembly is necessary.

II. A paper from the Assembly's Committee on Women's Missionary Societies, setting forth the desirableness of the Assembly recommending the establishment of dormitories for the female students under the care of Westminster and Monmouth colleges, was referred.

It is submitted, that since the colleges named are under Synodical control, and not directly sustained by the General Assembly; and since the project has been brought to the attention of the members of this court, both by the paper, twice read, and by personal advocacy; therefore,

Resolved, That this subject does not fall within the jurisdiction of the General Assembly.

III. In addition to the report of the Assembly's committee, statistical reports of Women's Missionary Societies, submitted by the Second Clerk of the Assembly, were referred.

It is submitted, that in view of the fact that thirty-nine Presbyteries report seven presbyterial societies, 168 congregational societies, 5,649 members, with a total contribution to the Boards of the church of $12,386, this department of the activities of the church has reached a point which requires the acknowledgment, encouragement and supervision of the General Assembly and the courts subordinate thereto; therefore,

Resolved, 1. That congregational societies already organized, and those which shall yet be organized, shall be subordinate to the session; and that presbyterial societies presently existing, and those yet to be constituted, shall be subordinate to the Presbytery, and shall report annually, through these courts, to the General Assembly.

2. That Presbyteries and sessions be recommended to encourage the organization of Women's Missionary Societies within their jurisdiction, and thus call into exercise an important part of the working power of the church.

3. That the primary object of these societies shall be spiritual, the exercise of the gifts and graces of the Spirit, and thus cherish a spirit of devotion and more entire consecration to God—and not merely collecting agencies of the church.

4. That in contributing to the benevolent work of the church, the Boards of Foreign Missions, Home Missions, Freedmen's Missions and Church Extension be specially commended to the liberality and benevolence of these societies, with advice that the funds raised be, as nearly as possible, apportioned among them, in proportion to the amount appropriated by the General Assembly.

5. That in order to simplify the management of the finances of the church and secure uniformity, all money contributed by the societies to the Boards shall be transmitted through the Financial Agents appointed by the General Assembly.

6. That the blanks prepared and submitted by the Second Clerk of the Assembly be approved, subject to such modification in the future as exigencies may require.

7. That the statistics of these societies be inserted in the annual minutes of the General Assembly.

The Special Committee on Old Records presented the following report, which was adopted:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON OLD RECORDS.

Resolved, 1. That this Assembly express thanks to the committee and gratification in view of the progress made during the year.

2. That the Assembly urge Presbyteries whose old records are lost, to make diligent effort to find them.

3. That as the old records of the different Presbyteries and Synods, by direction of the Assembly of 1876, are to be retained in present hands until the work of preparing histories is completed, Presbyteries be directed to place the records of their Associate and Associate Reformed predecessors in the possession of their respective Clerks, who shall be held responsible for their safe keeping.

4. That Presbyteries be instructed to see that the histories of their congregations are collected at once, and, for the present, placed in the keeping of the different Clerks of Presbyteries.

5. That Presbyteries report fully and definitely all that has been done by them during the year, in relation to the work in charge of this committee, on or before the 1st of May, 1880.

6. That the committee be directed to organize a United Presbyterian Historical Society, as soon as possible, and report to the next Assembly.

7. That the committee be directed to construct a vault for the preservation of histories and records, in our Theological Seminary building at Allegheny, or, if a suitable place can be found for it, in our Board of Publication building in Pittsburgh, at a cost not to exceed three hundred dollars.

8. That the committee, appointed by the Eighteenth General Assembly to prepare a history of the United Presbyterian Church, be instructed to complete their work, if it be not already done; and that the Board of Publication be directed to publish it without delay.

9. That the historical record of the Presbyteries and Synods of the Associate and Associate Reformed Churches be published in the appendix to the minutes.

10. That the Committee on Old Records be continued, and instructed to prosecute their work with all diligence.

The following resolutions of thanks were adopted:

RESOLUTIONS OF THANKS.

Resolved, That cordial thanks are hereby given to the pastors and members of the United Presbyterian and other congregations of New Wilmington and its vicinity, and to the citizens at large, for their generous hospitality to the members of this General Assembly, and also to the railroad companies that have so liberally allowed delegates to pass over their lines at reduced rates of fare.

Resolved, That thanks be returned to the Moderator for his genial and efficient discharge of the duties of his responsible office.

Resolved, That devout thanksgiving be made to God for the presence of his Holy Spirit in all sessions, and for the kindly and forbearing spirit that has been manifested by the members in their deliberations and acts.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures presented a report on the use of tobacco, which was amended and adopted. It is as follows:

REPORT ON THE USE OF TOBACCO.

The Assembly of 1870 adopted the following resolution:

"Resolved, That the use of tobacco is demoralizing in its tendency, and should, therefore, be discountenanced by all who profess the Christian religion."

In 1874, in response to a memorial from the ladies of Monmouth, the Assembly said, "We hail this memorial from the ladies of Monmouth as the harbinger of a better day, we trust not far distant, when the energies of the church shall be turned against the use of tobacco as they are now turned against the use of intoxicating liquors."

We therefore recommend the following:

Resolved, That no further action is necessary.

The Committee on Nominations presented a report, which was amended and adopted. It is as follows:

RESOLUTION RECOMMENDING REV. J. D. TURINO.

WHEREAS, This Assembly has enjoyed a peculiar pleasure in welcoming pastor J. D. Turino as a delegate of the Waldensian Church, and has learned from him that that church is making earnest efforts for the evangelization of Italy, and that one object of his visit is to ask the co-operation of Christians in this country; therefore,

Resolved, That we cordially commend the cause, which the Rev. J. D. Turino represents, to the sympathy, prayers and contributions of the members of our church.

The minutes of this session were read and approved.

The Assembly was dissolved, when the Moderator said: "By virtue of authority to me delegated, I do hereby dissolve this General Assembly, and require another General Assembly, chosen in the same manner, to meet in the First Church, Xenia, Ohio, on the fourth Wednesday of May, 1880, at 2: 30 o'clock, P. APPENDIX.

REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

Your Trustees would respectfully report:

That since your last meeting they have endeavored to attend to such business pertaining to the temporal interest of the church under your care as has been brought to their notice.

The McVean legacy, that has been standing so long a time and has caused your Trustees so much trouble and annoyance, has been so arranged that there will now be something realized from it.

The church property in Boston has been conveyed in fee simple to your Trustees, and they gave a mortgage for eleven thousand five hundred dollars, which was negotiated, and the debt of the church, except a few dollars, paid off. Dr. A. G. Wallace acted in conjunction with your Trustees in this matter, and he will report to you all the particulars in full. We ask what further instructions the General Assembly has for us in this matter.

The account of your Treasurer, James McCandless, was audited by a committee appointed by your Trustees, a detailed account of which has been forwarded to the General Assembly.

The official term as Trustees of Rev. R. B. Ewing, D. D., S. Collins, D. D., and William Reed, Esq., will expire with this meeting of the Assembly. Mr. William Reed does not wish to be re-elected.

That your deliberations and acts may be harmonious and blessed to the furtherance and prosperity of Christ's kingdom on the earth shall be our earnest wish and prayer. By order of the Board of Trustees.

GRAHAM SCOTT, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF FOREIGN MISSIONS.

The Board of Foreign Missions open their twentieth annual report with a grateful mention of the goodness of God during the past year. In both Egypt and India, though great financial troubles have afflicted the one and severe famine the other, yet our mission work has not been interrupted in any place or for a single hour. The lives of all our missionaries have been spared, and while some have been enfeebled from long and severe devotion to their work, yet no one has left the field to return to this country.

All the departments of the missionary work have been regularly carried on. In each mission accessions have been made to the native churches, and there have been the clearest evidences that labor has not been in vain—that souls have been enlightened and saved, and that God has been glorified.

THE WORK.

The two foreign missions of our church are in India and Egypt. In India there are four principal stations and eight out-stations; five foreign and two native ordained ministers; four unmarried female missionaries, and twenty-seven native helpers, being a total of thirty-eight laborers. There are 271 communicants, and an average attendance on Sabbath services of 740 persons. The increase in church members during the past year was 77; baptisms, 97; pupils in schools, 1,809 (of whom 1,243 were males, and 566 were females); students of theology, 9; contributions during the year were $244; tuition fees, $1,148. The total value of the property of this mission is $16,610.

In Egypt there are four central stations—Alexandria, Cairo, Sinoris and Osioot —and 35 lesser ones, with 8 foreign and four native ordained ministers, 7 native licentiates, 14 foreign teachers and 98 native teachers and helpers; or a total of 131 laborers, 22 foreign and 109 native. The whole number of churches organized is 9; communicants, 947 (found in 36 stations); increase during the year, 158; average attendance on the Sabbath, 1,801; baptisms, 74; schools, 39; pupils, 1,893 (males 1,271; females, 622); theological students, 6; contributions, $6,002; tuition fees, $2,611; value of property, $60,000; copies of Scriptures and of religious and educational books distributed, 21,224; moneys received for them, $4,451.

FUNDS.

Mr. William Getty, treasurer, makes the following statement, which will appear more fully in his report in detail to the Assembly:

The total amount received during the year ending April 30, 1879, was,	$51,351 93
Balance May 1, 1878	119 90
Total	$51,441 83
Expenditures were	$49,310 55
Balance paid to new treasurer	2,131 28
Total	$51,441 83
The receipts for the year just closed show an increase over the previous year of	$3,890 82
Orders were granted in favor of Egyptian Mission for	27,600 00
India Mission	21,600 00
	$49,200 00
Orders paid	42,849 28
	$6,340 72
Less amount on hand	2,131 28
Indebtedness at close of year 1879	$4,219 44
Indebtedness brought over from last year	$5,000 00
Leaving a deficiency of	$9,219 44

to be provided for in addition to the estimates for the year.

One of the noticeable features of the contributions for the past year is the large amount of individual donations, which are greatly in excess of the previous year. It must be a source of gratification to the many generous donors to know that in their lifetime their timely gifts are helping on the good work of the Master.

CONTRIBUTIONS.

It has been specially gratifying that the disposition to aid in carrying on this great work of our church is becoming more general every year. A larger number of congregations, Sabbath schools and individuals make offerings for it, and the number of missionary societies is steadily increasing. The effort is happily becoming more and more common to have these contributions made at different times during the year. Thus the constantly recurring wants of the missionaries are provided for, and the work is kept from being at certain seasons crippled, or painfully and sometimes disastrously embarrassed. All these things are tokens for good and they encourage the hope that the day will come when our whole church will be engaged in this great foreign work, and when the offerings for it shall be so distributed over the year that there will be no lack or delay at any time in making the remittances due to our laborers abroad.

MISSIONARIES.

It has grieved the Board that, at a time when both male and female laborers were so much needed in each of our missions, there has been almost an entire failure to obtain and send out the new reinforcements contemplated by the last Assembly. On the 19th of September last, the Rev. Dr. Watson and family sailed from New York on their return to Egypt. On the 15th of February Miss Isabella Strang, daughter of the Rev. David Strang, a returned missionary from Egypt, sailed for that mission. She is the youngest of all our missionaries; but having resided many years in Egypt, and been there well acquainted with the language, it was felt she could readily recall it, and be able to enter at once upon active missionary service.

The Board are in correspondence with other persons, some of whom it is hoped will devote themselves to this work. During the past winter a visit was made by the direction of the Board to each of our Theological Seminaries, and the earnest attention of the students was called to this subject. From all this it is hoped happy results will follow.

Most earnestly do the Board ask the Assembly and the churches to "pray the Lord of the harvest that he will raise up laborers for his harvest."

Rev. Samuel Martin and family have remained in this country during the year, recruiting their health and making arrangements to leave some of the children, as he and his wife re-enter upon their work in India. Miss M. G. Lockhart, who returned from Egypt in May, last year, has made some improvement in health, but is not able to resume her work. Miss Eliza F. Johnston, having remained a little more than a year, will return to the mission in Egypt at an early day.

The return of missionaries to this country, and the various matters relating to it, was referred to the Board by the last Assembly. The whole subject has been carefully considered, and a report, which has been approved by the Board, is herewith presented to the Assembly for its earnest attention and adoption.

INFORMATION.

The Board have very deeply felt the importance of having missionary intelligence largely given to the membership of our church. As far as possible, the Annual Report has been sent to ministers, and the effort has been made to have it circulated among the people. It would be well if it was carefully read in every family. Ministers are earnestly requested to call the attention of their congregations to it.

Some time since an urgent request was made that maps should be prepared, which would give a full exhibit of our Foreign Missions. Accordingly, one has been made, which presents at a glance almost every part of our work in India; and at the earliest day possible it is hoped that a similar one will be made of the mission in Egypt. These maps can be neatly mounted. It is hoped they will be promptly taken and suspended in Sabbath school rooms, in places of congregational meetings, and in the family circle at home, where they may be studied, and the extent and necessities of our great work be better understood, and thence more deeply appreciated and more fervently prayed for.

Every month, also, a statement is made of the latest facts pertaining to each mission, and it is respectfully urged that it will be thoroughly examined by all as it appears from month to month. The more there is known of the great work to which God has called us, and in which he has signally blessed us, the better it is believed it will be every way.

Most of all, it is desired that ministers will preach on this subject in the light of the cross. The love of Christ is the true secret and incentive for all effective interest and effort in the cause of missions. "The love of Christ constraineth us."

MODES OF MISSIONARY WORK.

As the gospel is the wisdom and the power of God unto salvation, the main effort in all our missions is to have it faithfully preached as opportunity may in any way offer. Every encouragement is held out to have schools, for both sexes, where instruction and training shall be given in whatever may be useful in future years. In every school the Bible and its teachings are constantly kept before the mind. In both missions there are Girls' Boarding Schools, where, in addition to mere literary and Bible studies, the inmates are taught the ways of properly keeping house, and of thus becoming fit companions of the young men who have passed through the courses of training in their schools; and in this way it is sought to have the way prepared for proper native Christian homes. As, too, it is of the first importance, as is more and more firmly believed, to have in the earliest possible time a thoroughly trained and well qualified native ministry, there is in each mission, as at Sealkote, in India, and Osioot, in Egypt, a regular organized Theological Institution, with chosen teachers or professors, and well arranged courses of study for educating native young men for the ministry. Already each mission is deriving signal benefit from this, and the best of results are more and more expected to follow.

TREATMENT OF CONVERTS.

In each mission the effort is persistently made to have every one that professes faith in Christ become engaged at once in the activities of the Christian life. All are faithfully taught to attend upon the means of grace, to seek to bring others with them to the places of instruction and prayer, and to go out themselves as they have opportunity, and read the Scriptures or have religious conversations with their people. They are urgently taught that it is more blessed to give than it is to receive. From the very beginning of their Christian life all are trained to cultivate the grace of beneficence, and in some of the missions the contributions are of the most cheering character. In the native churches in India the reported contributions of last year were $50; this year, $244. In Egypt they amounted last year to $5,044, and this year to $6,002. In every congregation where a pastor is settled a considerable portion of the salary is raised by the people, and in some the whole. In no case will the Presbyteries settle a pastor without the people contributing freely to his support.

MISSIONS.

1. Chinese.—As far as known, the mission of our church to this people has been efficiently conducted. It is located at Los Angeles, California, where Rev. J. C. Nevin is the missionary, and has his residence with his family. Convenient mission buildings were secured there from the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions at cost price. A mission school has been carried on, and every way, it is hoped, a good work is being done on behalf of the needy people for whom this mission was projected.

Early in the past year this mission was transferred, according to the direction of the General Assembly, to the Presbytery of San Francisco—a step which, it is believed, will work well every way.

2. India.—The field occupied by this mission is in the Punjaub, or northern part of India. It contains a population of from two to three millions, and, so far as missionary work among the people is concerned, is left almost entirely to our United Presbyterian Church. For each of the six ordained ministers of our church in that field—five foreign and one native—there are probably five hundred thousand persons. What are so few among so many?

In this field our missionaries carry on itinerant preaching, or go out through the different districts, and attend at the Melees or public fairs, and make the gospel known to all who can be induced to hear it. At the stations they have regular religious services; and in schools for boys and girls, on the Sabbath and during the week, constant instruction is given in the Holy Scriptures. Revs. James S. Barr and Andrew Gordon are engaged at certain seasons of the year in conducting the Theological Seminary, in the hope of early securing to the people an efficient and useful native ministry. In six of the twelve stations there are schools, and communicants, and constant work is done throughout the year.

In this mission there is a most pressing need for new missionaries. They are needed to meet the increasing demands of the field every year, to supply the places of those who have long been engaged, and must soon be relieved, or have to leave or die, and to be in training for the emergencies which may any day occur. Most earnestly do the Board entreat the Assembly to send out new laborers to this mission, and to send them IMMEDIATELY.

3. Egypt.—This mission of our church embraces the land of Egypt, where the 11,000 square miles contain a population of about 4,000,000. Thus far missionary work has been mainly among the Copts, though more or less of Moslems, Jews and others have always attended upon the schools. In the sovereign orderings of Providence, it is believed the day is rapidly drawing on when the spirit of fanaticism and hate, that have so long blinded the multitudes of the followers of the False Prophet, will be broken, and they will be free to receive the gospel. Every year the way is preparing for it.

In almost every leading town in Egypt now, from Alexandria to Assouan or the First Cataract, the mission has a station. In each the gospel is read or taught and preached. Boys' and girls' schools, boarding schools for girls, and a collegiate institute are in thorough operation. Each year the theological school sends out well trained men to take their places as efficient native preachers and pastors. Very widely the Scriptures and a thorough evangelical literature are being circulated and read among almost all classes of the people; and during the past year accessions have been made to every native church of persons who have made a good profession of their faith in Christ.

Numerous, however, as the mission stations are, and increasingly opening up as the whole country is every year for the gospel, not a single male missionary has been added to the band of laborers there for years. But what are eight men, however devoted and able, among over four millions of people? Or, if we confine them to the Copts, what are they for nearly four hundred thousand? And among the hundreds of thousands of poor, ignorant, degraded women, what are five or six missionary women—the whole number in active service—for so many? Are not the laborers, male and female, few, indeed, in a field so needy, so white for the harvest, and where God has so signally blessed us already in our work?

In this mission the very great need of suitable buildings for their work, in Mansoura and Alexandria, has led the missionaries to ask the Board to seek from the Assembly a special grant of $1,000 to procure a mission site in the former place, and $4,000 for it in the latter. The Board have felt the force of the appeals; but in the state of their treasury—entering upon a new year in debt—and not knowing how much might be required before the buildings would be completed, the Board do not see the way open, as things are, to recommend the grants. Most deeply, however, do we feel the necessity for proper places both for schools, church services, and the missionaries' residences; and much do we hope the day will ere long come when we may as a church have every necessity of this kind promptly and fully met.

SPECIAL FRIENDS.

In reviewing the work of the past year, the Board gratefully feel that thanks are renewedly due for the special help that has been freely given.

In repeated ways, David Stuart, Esq., of Liverpool, England, has shown to our missionaries, on their route to their fields, the kindness that has so signally characterized his conduct towards us for many years.

His Highness, the Maharajah Dhuleep Singh, made his annual offering again of FIVE THOUSAND DOLLARS to our mission in Egypt. This, it will be remembered, has been his liberal gift each year since his marriage, in 1863, making thus a sum of over $70,000 to this mission—a noble testimonial of his respect for the Christian religion, and of his regard for a mission that, through one of its girls' schools, gave him the worthy wife of his youth and of his life.

An unusually large number of persons, both in our church and in sister churches, have seemed to realize from time to time the special wants that were pressing upon us, and have made timely and liberal contributions. It gives us pleasure to mention the following:

A. M. Stewart, Esq., of Indiana, Pa.	$1,800 00

The Ladies' Missionary Society of Argyle, N. Y., and some sister congregations of Argyle Presbytery, that had generously undertaken to support a female missionary who is now laboring in Egypt, have liberally and promptly made every remittance as it was needed. The Ladies' Missionary Society of Allegheny; the General Missionary Society, under the auspices of Mrs. Hanna, of Washington, Pa., and many others, have done much and well during the year. Sabbath schools, also, have had their attention called to this subject, and the opportunity has been more and more afforded them to manifest their interest in it, and to contribute to it; and the result has happily been the placing of several thousand dollars in the treasury from the children of our church.

The Paisley Ladies' Missionary Society, Scotland, and the British and Foreign and American Bible Societies have continued their usual liberal aid—the former, for sustaining the girls' schools in Alexandria, Egypt, and both the latter for circulating the Holy Scriptures, especially in the Arabic tongue. In this great work, also, Dr. William Gibson, of Jamestown, Pa., has borne a most munificent and generous part. The Turkish Missions Aid Society have shown their usual kindness.

BEQUESTS.

Much help has been derived during the year, again, from the sacred effort of departing Christian men and women to place Christ and his cause among their heirs. Yet it is painful to notice that sometimes moneys thus left are long reaching our treasury, and in some instances are prevented or lost altogether. The Board would respectfully suggest:

First. That in cases where persons may be able to distribute their offerings to the Lord's cause themselves while still living, that they will endeavor to do so.

Second. That when the circumstances will not permit this, that every one will make his or her will as promptly as possible, remembering that in some States, as in Pennsylvania, if a person dies within thirty days after the will is made, the bequests to benevolent objects are made invalid.

We gratefully mention the following bequests:

THE BOARD.

The terms of Rev. James Crowe, William Getty and Thomas Stinson expire at this meeting of the Assembly.

It is with much regret the Board report the resignation of the treasurership by Mr. William Getty. As one of the oldest members of the Board in service, and always regular and prompt in his attendance upon the meetings, he was ever a valuable aid to his brethren. In his acquaintance with business and his love of the mission cause, he discharged the laborious and often perplexing duties of the treasurership, which he has filled for several years, with ability and success, and that, until recently, without any remuneration. In parting with Mr. Getty the Board desire to place on record before the Assembly and the churches its grateful sense of his services and his worth. Rev. J. B. Dales was appointed to fill the place for the time.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

The following recommendations are respectfully submitted to the consideration of the Assembly:

First. That the report of the Board be approved; that 3,000 copies be directed to be published, and circulated as widely as possible in all the congregations, and that every minister of the church urge that it be read with careful attention.

Second. That devout thanksgiving be rendered to God for his continued favor in sparing the lives of our missionaries, and in giving in all parts of our missionary fields encouraging returns for the efforts put forth. And that special thanks be given to the Maharajah Dhuleep Singh, of England; to David Stuart, Esq., of Liverpool, and to the various American and foreign institutions and individuals alike, that have so generously contributed to us funds and important facilities for carrying forward our great work.

Third. That Miss Rosa A. McCullough be appointed to the mission in India; and in view of the great need there is of reinforcements, one male and an additional female missionary be sent to that field during the year; that the same number of new laborers be sent to Egypt; that Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Martin and Miss Eliza F. Johnston be recommended to return at the earliest time in their power to their respective places of labor, and that the moneys that will be required for having all this done be appropriated by this Assembly.

Fourth. That the following appropriations be made:

To Egypt	$28,465 50
To India	22,000 00
To send out new missionaries	3,000 00
To return any now in this country	1,500 00
To support children in this country	1,000 00
To refund money borrowed by the Board	5,000 00
To meet deficit of last year	4,219 44
Miscellaneous	1,200 00
	$66,384 94

Fifth. That special care be taken to have only such persons appointed to vacancies in the Board as will probably attend the meetings, and thus prevent the perplexities that so often arise from there not being a quorum, even when the most important matters may require consideration.

By order of the Board. W. W. BARR, President.
J. B. DALES, Cor. Sec.

REPORT OF THE BOARD AND OF THE GENERAL COMMITTEE OF HOME MISSIONS.

The Board and General Committee of Home Missions would respectfully present to the General Assembly the following report:

A.—REPORT OF THE BOARD.

A few extracts from the report of the Board, as submitted to the General Committee, will convey some idea of the progress of the work during the year now closing.

The last General Assembly granted aid to 197 stations under the care of 43 Presbyteries. From four of these stations no reports have been received. The reports of sixty-three others are incomplete, embracing only a part of the year—nineteen being for one quarter, thirteen for two, and thirty-one for three quarters. In the stations from which reports have been received there is a membership of 10,287, while the average attendance upon divine ordinances on the Lord's day has been 17,417. The additions to the church have been 698 on profession and 948 on certificate. The decrease by death and removal has been 560. In the Sabbath Schools connected with these stations, there has been an average attendance of 10,376 pupils. During the year these stations have contributed to the Boards of the church $5,394, and for the support of their own pastors or missionaries, $52,158. These figures show the membership to be 849; the average attendance to have been 1,080; the additions on profession, 191; on certificate, 366; the decrease, 8; the contributions to the Boards, $814; and for the support of their own pastors or missionaries, $2,339—more than during the preceding year. By a reference to the summary appended to the statistical tables of this report, it will be seen that the number of members, the attendance of Sabbath School scholars, and the amount contributed to the support of their own pastors or missionaries, is considerably in excess of any previous year; that the accessions to the church have been, with but two exceptions, larger than they have ever been, while the contributions to the Boards have been greater than at any time since the commencement of the commercial embarrassment that has for years rested upon the country. In estimating the value of these gratifying results, the circumstances of these congregations or stations must be taken into the account. Fully one-third of them have no church building, but meet in school houses, rented halls, barns or private dwellings; often inconvenient, badly located and uncomfortable. Many have no fixed pastor, and consequently do not enjoy the advantages of careful pastoral supervision. A considerable number of them are supplied only one-half, one-third or one-fourth of the time. They are subject to disappointment, and often for months have no one to break unto them the bread of life. None of them have the prestige of assured success; few of them are of sufficient age to derive any advantage from the natural growth of the church. All of them are weak numerically and financially. The facts, then, developed by the reports of the past year, when viewed in their proper light, certainly show a degree of efficiency in this that is fully equal to any other department of church service.

Special Missions.—The following stations were placed under this head by the last Assembly:

Omaha, Presbytery of Nebraska.—Rev. D. R. Miller has been laboring efficiently in this difficult field during the year. Under his ministry there has been considerable increase in the membership. The Sabbath School and prayer meetings have been well attended. The average of the contributions for all purposes, $14.73 per member.

Topeka, Presbytery of Kansas.—The past year has been an unfortunate one for this important and growing field. A considerable portion of the time, it has been wholly unoccupied or visited only by occasional supplies. Notwithstanding this it has lately been represented as being in a more hopeful condition than in former years. The city is growing rapidly—is, in fact, the most prosperous in the State. With a prudent, faithful missionary, properly supported, there is reason to hope that we may yet have a self-sustaining church in that place.

Burlington, Presbytery of Keokuk.—Rev. J. A. Pollock, who entered upon this field at the commencement of the year, has been laboring with encouraging success. The congregation has grown in membership and attendance. The Sabbath School and prayer meetings are prospering. "The people are alive and earnest, and are hopeful and willing to work for success." The congregation is engaged in the erection of a church building, and anticipate its early completion. Thus one serious drawback to their ultimate success will soon be removed.

Indianapolis, Presbytery of Indiana.—Rev. S. A. Buck has been faithfully laboring in this field since the beginning of the year. Owing to the events of the preceding year, the congregation was somewhat reduced in numbers and much discouraged. Our young brother was thus placed in a trying position. He, however, reports a marked improvement in the attendance upon the services of the Sabbath, the weekly prayer meeting and the Sabbath School, and that the people are more hopeful as to the future. In addition to the regular services in the church, he has been preaching to good audiences at an out station on the south side of the city.

Port Huron, Presbytery of Detroit.—Under the pastoral labors of Rev. T. W. Monteith, this important station has made considerable progress during the year. There has been an increase in the membership and attendance; also in the Sabbath School and contributions. Under the guidance and with the assistance of the Board of Church Extension, it is believed that they will be able to relieve themselves shortly of the debt upon their church building which has been for several years such a serious obstacle in the way of their prosperity.

Oshkosh, Presbytery of Wisconsin.—Rev. W. A. Spalding entered upon his work in this field about the middle of the first quarter, and continued his labors until the close of the third. Convinced that it was his duty to accept the charge of the congregation at Oskaloosa, Presbytery of Des Moines, the Board reluctantly released him from his engagement at Oshkosh, where he evidently was doing good service, and appointed Rev. W. H. Ferguson for the remainder of the year. The field is a difficult one, and does not promise to become self-sustaining in the near future; yet we have a considerable number of earnest and zealous people there, with a church building free from debt. And with a faithful missionary properly sustained, there is reason to hope for ultimate success. The point is an important one in view of its relations to the other parts of the State.

Chase City and Stanton River, Va., Presbytery of Mansfield.—Rev. Matthew Clarke, who has been in this field since the beginning of the year, reports, "This is one of the best mission fields I know. When I say this I refer to the colored population. There is not much prospect of gain to our church from the Southern people here, and the population from the North is limited. But then there is an unlimited field when you take the colored population into view. The fact is this is our special work; our white congregation is simply a band of workers training and qualifying themselves by their own religious services for more efficient work among the colored people." In view of the peculiar state of the mission and its importance, the Board, in conjunction with the Freedmen's Board, arranged for the support of brother Clarke, who is evidently doing a good work.

Chicago, Presbytery of Chicago.—Under the earnest ministry of Rev. W. T. Meloy, D. D., there has been gratifying and substantial progress in this great and needy field. In a recent letter he says, "I do think the day is growing brighter, and that we will soon have a self-sustaining congregation here." A member of the Board, who recently visited that city, speaks quite encouragingly of the prospects of the church there.

Warm Springs Indian Mission, Presbytery of Oregon.—Rev. R. N. Fee and wife, appointed to this mission, arrived at the Agency early in May, last year, and immediately entered upon their labors. It will be remembered that the Indians on this reservation are the remnants of three distinct tribes, each speaking their own language, and in a measure having their own customs and beliefs; about one hundred from a fourth tribe have been recently placed upon the reservation. Most of the instruction has to be imparted through interpreters. About three-fifths of those on the reservation are what is termed "blanket Indians." "They do not show many marks of civilization." During the last few months there has been some improvement among them. These Indians mostly reside in the northern part of the reservation, about twenty miles from the Agency. Their chiefs and head men are anxious to have a school and church among them. Brother Fee suggests that an effort be made to secure an appropriation from the government for the support of a school for these people.

During the year the labors of the missionaries have met with an encouraging degree of success, especially among the Indians at or in the vicinity of the Agency. Forty-two have been added to the church, so that the little congregation there gathered out of heathenism now numbers sixty-three. In the judgment of the missionary a Christian young man should be secured to act as teacher among the Indians north of the Agency, who would ultimately become a missionary to them.

Toledo, Presbytery of Sidney.—Owing to the condition of our treasury, it was not considered advisable to attempt to establish a mission there.

Oakland, Presbytery of San Francisco.—For the reason just mentioned, this field, which has been inviting our efforts for several years, remains unoccupied by us. The brethren of the Presbytery regard it not only important but unusually promising, and ask an appropriation in order that the work may be commenced next year.

Financial Condition of the Board.—On the 30th of April, last year, the Board was $3,313.75 in debt; this was not fully paid until the 12th of August; the obligations which matured on the 30th of June were not all paid until the 6th of December; those maturing on the 30th of September were not all paid until the 31st of March; those which became due on the 31st of December were not fully paid until the 30th of April; of the claims that became due on the 31st of March we have paid $1,099.58, leaving a balance of $8,391.66 unpaid, and our treasury overdrawn $65.30, making our actual debt $8,456.96. And in this connection it must not be forgotten that in a few weeks about $9,200 will become due; so that to meet these claims with a reasonable degree of promptness $17,500 must come into our treasury within the next ninety days. On the 30th of April, 1877, we closed the year with a debt of $1,306.81; on the 30th of April, 1878, our debt was $3,313.75. It is now, as just stated, $8,456.96. Thus the difference between the appropriations and our receipts has been growing larger and larger every year for the last three. We are, then, confronted with the painful truth that as a church we must either contract our Home Mission work or exercise greater liberality towards this vitally important service. This is especially unfortunate in view of the fact that the past year has been one of more than ordinary prosperity in the work itself, while the fields that invite our efforts are rapidly growing in importance and influence. All reports from the West confirm the belief that never before has the tide of immigration been so large as it is at present. If we cannot or will not follow this moving mass of population with the ordinances of God's house, much that may justly be claimed as our own will be lost, while opportunities for extending the church and saving souls that may never return, will pass from us. This state of things should receive the careful and prayerful consideration of the General Committee and the Assembly.

The contributions during the year have been: From Presbyteries, $23,382.81; from Sabbath Schools, $614.76; from Ladies' Missionary Societies, $852.84; from Legacies, $2,173.62; from Miscellaneous sources, $4,850.67; in all, $31,874.70. Obligations amounting to $31,940.00 have been paid during the year. By a reference to the summary, it will be seen that the income from Presbyteries has been $1,373.79; from Sabbath Schools, $264.79; from Legacies, $1,737.68 less, and from Ladies' Societies $172.34, and Miscellaneous sources $2,507.81 more, than during the previous year. The actual decrease, therefore, in our receipts as compared with the previous year, being only $696.11, while compared with those of the year closing April 30th, 1877, there has been an increase of $2,124.00. The deficiency in our receipts, therefore, does not fully account for our increased indebtedness. The explanation will be found in the large appropriations made last year, and in the fact that there has been a more general fulfillment of the conditions attached to these appropriations, showing that a larger amount of service upon which the claims are based has been rendered.

The term of service of the following members of the Board will expire with the close of the present year, viz.: Rev. W. J. Reid, D. D., Rev. W. S. Owens, and R. A. Cunningham, Esq.

B.—REPORT OF THE GENERAL COMMITTEE.

The twentieth annual meeting of the General Committee was held in the First Church, Mercer, Pa., beginning Wednesday, May 21st. Fifty-one delegates were present, representing all the Presbyteries except Argyle, Concordia, Minnesota, Oregon and San Francisco. The Committee was organized by the election of Rev. J. G. Carson, D. D., of the Presbytery of Xenia, Chairman; and Rev. Andrew Renwick, of the Presbytery of Monmouth, Assistant Secretary. The business presented received careful attention, and the following action, adopted with great unanimity, is submitted for the consideration of the Assembly.

The amount of money desired for the coming year was $46,250. The amount granted was $39,885, including $3,000 placed at the disposal of the Board. In view of our greatly increased indebtedness, and the experience of the past as to the probable contributions of the church, the committee was constrained to reduce the appropriations, in many instances, considerably below the amounts judged by the Presbyteries to be essential to the highest efficiency of the work, and to refuse some altogether. For the same reasons several new enterprises, deemed promising and important, could not be inaugurated.

The names of 135 ministers and probationers were reported, as required by the rules of the Assembly. A number of these could not, owing to circumstances, fulfill regular appointments, and were referred back to their own Presbyteries. There were, however, 119 names for the whole or part of the year, equivalent to the full time of 115 men. The Presbyteries applied for only 68 men, although reporting that vacant congregations required the full time of 90.

Inasmuch as there was the full time of 47 men at the disposal of the committee in excess of the requests of the Presbyteries, it was considered just to refuse employment to students who had not completed their course, and to limit the appointments of all others to three quarters, except in cases where the missionary was desired by some particular station or Presbytery for the whole year. Even under this arrangement some could receive appointments for but two quarters and some for only one, while the large number of 27 brethren obtained no employment whatever. A majority of these are not only willing to labor, but also qualified to render efficient service. Can the church rest satisfied to have so much of her effective force partially or wholly unemployed ?

The manner in which the means and men at our disposal have been distributed will appear from the following tables :

III.—SPECIAL MISSIONS.

The following action was taken with reference to certain missions whose claims were considered by the General Committee:

1. That $175 be appropriated to the congregation of Lumber City, Brookville Presbytery.

2. That $750 be appropriated to the First Church, Chicago, Presbytery of Chicago.

3. That $600 for supply, or $1,000 for settlement, be appropriated to the congregation of Omaha, Nebraska Presbytery: and that the appointment of a missionary be referred to the Board of Home Missions.

4. That $350 be appropriated to the congregation of Port Huron, Presbytery of Detroit.

5. That the General Committee should not appoint a General Missionary for the Presbytery of Concordia.

6. That $1,000 be appropriated to the congregation of Indianapolis, Presbytery of Indiana; and that Rev. W. P. McNary be appointed missionary to that field for the year.

7. That the application of Topeka, Presbytery of Kansas, be referred to the Board, with instructions to revive the work there, if practicable.

8. That $750 be appropriated to Burlington, Presbytery of Keokuk, and that Rev. J. A. Pollock be appointed missionary there for the year.

9. That $200 be appropriated to Chase City and Stanton River, on condition that the Board of Freedmen's Missions sustain its work there.

10. That the application of Portland, Presbytery of Oregon, be passed over for this year.

11. That $600 be appropriated to Los Angeles, Presbytery of San Francisco, and that Mr. J. M. Hervey be appointed missionary there for one year.

12. That the application of Oshkosh, Presbytery of Wisconsin, be referred to the Board of Home Missions.

IV.—MISCELLANEOUS.

The following resolutions were adopted, and are recommended to the Assembly:

1. That it would not be wise to transfer to the Board of Home Missions, or to any local Board, the work of the General Committee.

2. That at its next meeting, and annually thereafter, the General Committee shall designate what missions shall be regarded as Special Missions, and shall refer such stations to the Board of Home Missions for a given term of years in each case; and it shall be the duty of the Board to make appropriations of money and appointments of missionaries to such missions during the specified term.

3. There shall be added to the General Committee one delegate from the Board of Home Missions, to be elected annually by the Board.

4. While we would not affirm that the tithe law, as embodied in the Mosaic institutions, is binding under the present dispensation, yet the law of Christ does bind his people, and all men to contribute regularly of their worldly substance "according as the Lord hath prospered them," for religious and benevolent purposes. And when we consider that the principle embodied in the tithe law was evidently acted on by the worshipers of God long before the days of Moses, and that Christians, being relieved of much that was burdensome and expensive under the former dispensation, and exalted to far higher degrees of light and privilege, are under greatly increased obligations in this respect—it is at least safe to say that this law affords a proper guide in this matter; therefore,

Resolved, That in the judgment of this Assembly Christians ought not, in their contributions for benevolent and religious purposes, to fall below one-tenth of their yearly income.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF FREEDMEN'S MISSION.

The Board has held fourteen meetings for the transaction of business during the year. A monthly report has been received from each station, and from each department of the work.

The missionaries and teachers have all been mercifully spared in life and health. Although thousands fell at their side by the pestilence, it did not come near them. Thanks to a merciful Providence.

PROGRESS OF THE WORK.

Knoxville.—The religious work has been faithfully and earnestly carried on during the entire year. The pulpit of the college congregation was occupied every Sabbath, with an average attendance for the year of 149 at the morning service and 83 in the afternoon. The morning service consists of Sabbath School and sermon. The afternoon of sermon or lecture and gospel readings. In the latter exercise the audience takes a prominent part. In the Sabbath School the missionaries and teachers are all engaged, and are faithfully assisted by the members of the President's and Dr. Reed's families. The statistical report of the congregation is as follows: Increase by profession, 8; by certificate, 7; decrease, 5; infant baptisms, 3; adult baptisms, 7. Contributions—Foreign Missions, $6.00; Home Missions, $5.00; Freedmen's Missions, $5.00; Church Extension, $5.00; Education, $4.00; Publication, $3.00; Assembly's Fund, $3.00; Aged Ministers' Fund, $4.00; congregational expenses, $63.00; total, $98.00. Average per member, $1.84. The membership is 53.

During the school term Dr. Reed gave regularly his morning theological lectures. Two weekly prayer meetings were held. One is the regular congregational prayer meeting; the other is a students' prayer meeting. This meeting was established since the new year, and meets at the close of the school hour in the afternoon. It is composed of the students, and conducted by them, but generally under the inspection of Miss E. B. Wallace.

In the branch mission in East Knoxville, two Sabbath Schools are conducted every Sabbath by Miss Mary Hezlep, teacher. The morning school was established on the first Sabbath of January, and was intended for the benefit of those entirely destitute of religious instruction. The attendance and interest in these services were truly wonderful. The smallest attendance was 32. This was the number at the organization. The largest attendance at any one session was 180.

Educational.—The enrollment in the college for the year was 163, and in the branch school 70; total, 233. The work done in the school has been systematic and thorough. The grades are higher than last year, and a correspondingly better class of students has been in attendance. That the college is doing good work, is evident from the fact that over thirty students received good certificates last fall from the County Superintendent of Knox county, and nearly all of these were employed as teachers. Their school terms averaged from two to five months, and their wages from $20.00 to $45 00 per month.

These nearly all came into the classes in the college again as soon as their schools closed. It was a noticeable and encouraging fact that students of Knoxville College were generally preferred by those who were seeking teachers.

The branch school is altogether primary, but has well supplied a need in that part of the city, and has been faithfully and efficiently managed.

It may be that in the near future circumstances may so change as to render the continuance of the secular school in East Knoxville unnecessary. In such event the Board will close it, and continue only the purely missionary work there.

Library.—During October last $200 were received from the estate of Mrs. Jane Brown, of Harlansburg, Pa. The bequest was made for the purpose of purchasing books for the library in the college. The whole amount was thus expended. The books thus secured, with an additional $50 worth, donated by the Board of Publication at Pittsburgh, made a very handsome and valuable addition to the library. Thus year by year, and little by little, the library has grown until it has become an important agency for increasing the efficiency and popularity of the college.

Dormitories.—The dormitories have been occupied during the greater part of the year, and prove very useful in securing a good class of students from a distance, who would not be able to attend were it not for this accommodation.

Industrial Department.—This department was continued under the direction of Mrs. M. J. Reed. It was kept open five months during the term. There were two classes conducted, with an aggregate enrollment of 72. "The girls took a deep interest in the work, and made good progress." This department received and distributed to the needy nine boxes of clothing and supplies during the year; also gave aid to thirty-seven poor families from the means secured by sale of articles made by the girls. It is a very important agency in the work. Mrs. Reed was granted a salary of $100 for the last year.

New House.—A small cottage was erected last fall on the college grounds for Dr. Reed's family. This became necessary because of the limited capacity of the family departments in the college. The total cost of the house was $850.

Examination and Closing.—The examination of classes was held May 14th, 15th, 16th, 19th and 20th. The closing exercises of the term were held May 21st.

Missionaries.—Rev. J. S. McCulloch, President of the college, Misses E. B.

Wallace and Mattie Baldridge, Miss Mary Hezlep, teacher in branch mission, Rev. S. B. Reed, D. D., pastor of college church and theological teacher, and Mrs. M. J. Reed, principal of the industrial department. Two colored students were appointed tutors during the latter part of the term, and gave a good degree of satisfaction. They each heard one or more recitations, daily, in the primary department.

CHASE CITY.

The missionaries at this station are Prof. J. J. Ashenhurst and Misses Jennie McNeil and Etta Ashenhurst, and Rev. Matthew Clarke, for a portion of his time.

The school occupied the new building on the 1st of September, and was full to overflowing during the entire term. The total enrollment for the year was 213. The total average daily attendance for the year was 93. The educational work has been faithfully and efficiently performed. Some of the students of last year taught short terms in the public schools during the early fall, then returned to school, and are now again employed in the county in teaching. There is a want being supplied by this school in that section which has long been felt. The religious work as well is being faithfully performed. A weekly prayer meeting is held which is generally well attended. The Sabbath School had a daily average attendance during the year of 89. It meets every Sabbath, and is superintended by Mr. Ashenhurst. Bro. Clarke preaches or lectures every alternate Sabbath afternoon in the chapel, and in his absence Mr. Ashenhurst conducts a gospel service. Bro. Clarke also delivers an address every Tuesday evening at prayer meeting.

It is gratifying to be able to state that the opposition, with which our work met at this point when it was first organized, has entirely ceased. The mission is in almost universal favor, both with the colored and white population. The Southern people in the community volunteer testimony to the good that is being done by the mission, and say, "We can see a change in the morals of the colored people, which they very much needed."

VICKSBURG.

The Board, after the last Assembly, at once adopted measures to carry out the order and reopen the mission in Vicksburg, but before a suitable missionary could be secured the yellow fever plague broke out, and all effort was for the time suspended. After health was restored to the city and the South, negotiations were again entered into, when it was decided, in order to avoid making any mistake, it would be better to have the field inspected by some one suitable and interested in the work. Rev. Dr. Reed was requested to visit the field. This he did about the 1st of April. He spent some time there, and found the facts as they had been represented to us. There are some three elders and some thirty members of our church there. They are most anxious for a missionary, and the field is very needy. School work is not needed, but a missionary badly. We therefore recommend the reopening of the mission, and ask an appropriation sufficient to secure a laborer for that field.

Property.—The property at Vicksburg was sold for debt, and bought by our agent for the Board. The property is well worth the claim of the Board against it, but a present expense of $328.60 had to be incurred to secure it. This will, of course, not be lost eventually, but was not provided for in our last year's appropriation. The property is now rented for $25 per month.

There has been no change in the status of the property at other stations since the meeting of the last General Assembly.

FINANCIAL CONDITION.

The receipts for the year ending April 30th, are as follows:

From	Presbyteries	$5,652 28
"	Congregations	182 25
"	Sabbath Schools	283 12
"	Societies	190 95
"	Individuals	1,411 05
"	Bequests	250 00
"	Legacies	325 00

Although greatly embarrassed during the year, and compelled to borrow to pay the missionaries, we have received enough in the last months to pay all our debt, except $1,000, now in bank.

At the 1st of June there will be due to the missionaries and teachers $863, to pay which we have in the treasury only $599.99.

MISCELLANEOUS.—NEW FIELDS.

Blue Stone.—During the whole year this locality has been pressing its claims on the attention of the Board. It is located fourteen miles from Chase City, in the bounds of the Stanton congregation, and thickly settled with colored people. A Sabbath School has been kept up part of the time by some members of the United Presbyterian Church there. Dr. E. P. McLean has charge of it at present. The field is needy and promising. The people in the vicinity promise material aid in securing suitable premises, in case a mission is established.

Clarksville, Va.—This place is eight miles from the last named locality. It is a town of over 1,000 inhabitants; is situated on the Roanoke river, at the junction of the Dan and Stanton rivers, and is a place of considerable importance. The colored population of the town is large, and the surrounding country very thickly settled with colored people. They are altogether destitute of any religious instruction. No church has any mission either in or for many miles of the place. A day school for the colored people is kept open a few months in the year, and was taught the last term by Mr. Jacob Armstrong, an elder of the Stanton United Presbyterian Church. We have been informed recently that he and a colored student of the Chase City school, who is now teaching in the vicinity of Clarksville, have opened a Sabbath School in the town. Their effort is meeting with some encouragement.

There is in the town a very valuable property, consisting of four acres of land, having erected on it seven small dwellings and a large, four-storied substantial brick building, 50x75 feet, all in good condition. This building was erected some years ago for a tobacco manufactory, at a cost of over $10,000. It is now unoccupied and offered for sale. The agent informs us that the whole property can be purchased for $2,000. The Board considers both these fields very needy and specially important, and would respectfully ask the advice of the Assembly in regard to future action. Other fields have been brought to the attention of the Board during the year, but we only mention the above as, in our judgment, the most promising.

Vacancies and Appointments in the Board.—Two vacancies occurred during the year. James Richey, Jr., resigned, and A. P. Burchfield was appointed in his place. Rev. D. S. Kennedy removed from the vicinity, and Rev. D. W. Carson was appointed to the vacancy, till the meeting of the Assembly.

APPROPRIATIONS.

The Board respectfully asks for an appropriation of $10,000, additional to the amount which may be deemed necessary for the mission in Vicksburg.

VACANCIES.

The term of office of Rev. J. T. Cooper, D. D., Rev. J. A. Gordon and A. P. Burchfield, appointed in place of James Richey, Jr., expires with this year.

By order of the Board.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION.

The Board of Church Extension respectfully submits the following statement of its work for the year:

The year has beeen one of peculiar difficulty. The instructions given by the General Assembly have required large payments to certain important missions. It has also been necessary to help some older congregations in order to save them from destructive loss by debts contracted in more prosperous days. At the same time the continued financial depression has caused the receipts to be much below the demands upon the Board. The consequence is that the work has been limited to a narrower field than is the desire of the Board. It has not been possible to encourage applications from the many mission stations which are suffering from the want of suitable church premises. It is the desire of the Board to distribute the funds committed to it over the largest possible territory, and to give the preference to the strictly mission congregations. It is hoped that we have nearly reached the period when help will be given exclusively to the erection of churches in new congregations, and not for the payment of debts in older ones. Anything the General Assembly may be able to do to secure this will be a benefit to the work.

RECEIPTS.

The receipts, exclusive of the balance from last year, have been :

For the General Fund—
From Presbyteries	$9,105 00
From Sabbath Schools	256 10
From Societies	90 05
From Individuals	562 51
From Legacies	185 60
From Rents	565 55
		$10,764 81
For the Loan Fund—
From Presbyteries	838 12
From Sales of Property	289 15
From Loans repaid	1,953 04
		3,130 31
From the "Hanna Fund"	600 00
From Money borrowed	1,000 00
		1,600 00
Total receipts		$15,495 12

The larger amount reported last year was because of special collections reported, some of which had been made in 1877. The present year shows an increase of $1,058.04 in the contributions of Presbyteries. The receipts from Sabbath Schools and Societies are but a small share of their total gifts, and much below the proper proportion of Church Extension as a part of the mission work of the church. The same may be said of the gifts of some of the Presbyteries.

APPROPRIATIONS.

The following appropriations have been made :

Congregation.	Presbytery.	Donation.	Loan.
Albia	Des Moines	$600 00
Belmore	Sidney	730 00
Burlington	Keokuk	2,500 00
Carnahan's Creek	Concordia	350 00	$150 00
Chicago	Chicago	641 00	778 00
Hepburn	Nebraska	300 00
Lenox	Des Moines	300 00	200 00
McKeesport	Westmoreland	1,010 00
Santa Ana	San Francisco	200 00
Sharon	Mercer	650 00
Wampum	Beaver Valley	211 40
Whitinsville	Boston	700 00	300 00
		$8,192 40	$1,428 00
Total			$9,620 40

The amount granted is less than in former years, because of the unwillingness of the Board to promise more than can be paid within a reasonable time. To do so would only produce disappointment and injury. The circumstances of the congregations helped have required the appropriations to be chiefly for donations.

FINANCIAL CONDITION.

The present liabilities of the Board are :

Appropriations not paid	$4,350 00
Loans from the "Hanna Fund"	1,800 00
Note without interest, and subject to call	400 00
Total	$6,550 00

To meet this, there is a balance in the treasury of $1,999.66. To avoid a very serious deficiency and the attending loss, contributions should be made early in the year.

PROGRESS OF THE WORK.

The following detailed statement will give the grounds on which the appropriations were made, and also show the progress of the work :

Albia.—In 1872 the Board made a loan to Albia, which remains unpaid. The Presbytery represents that in consequence of failures and removals, the congregation is unable to meet its obligations. At its request the loan has been changed to a donation, provided all other debts shall be paid within one year.

Belmore.—Belmore is a new town on the Cincinnati, Dayton & Michigan Railroad, at the crossing of the Baltimore & Ohio, 25 miles north of Lima, in the "Black Swamp" timber lands. The surrounding country is an open missionary field in great need. The evangelical doctrines are cordially received, and the labor of our ministers is welcomed. Evening services at Belmore, conducted by Rev. J. C. Bigham, were greatly blessed, and a very interesting mission was established in connection with the congregation of Leipsic. But little further progress could be made, because a "union church" was their only place of meeting. During the past year this house was about to be sold for claims against it, and the Board bought it for $730.00. Notes amounting to about $500 were assigned with the house, but very little will be realized from them. The property is a good one, in a desirable location, and could not even now be replaced for twice the price paid for it. By the prompt action of the Board, this mission is secured in a home.

Burlington.—The success of the effort to establish a congregation in the inviting city of Burlington, Iowa, depended upon the possibility of obtaining a house of worship. The number of members was small, but with their pastor, they gave themselves very heartily to the work, with the most gratifying results. A lot 50 feet by 118 was secured, and a house 34 by 62 feet will soon be completed, free of debt. The movement has been kindly supported by the community, and the congregation has every prospect of success. The economy of liberal help at this early stage cannot be doubted.

Chicago.—The basement of the Chicago church is still used by the city for school purposes, but the arrangement probably will not be continued beyond the present year. The Board has paid $319.00 interest on the first mortgage, and has recently received $291.00, the proceeds of city scrip for six months rent. The mortgage has been reduced $1,100 during the year, viz.: $350.00 by special donations, and $750.00 by the Synod of Illinois. The contributions of the Synod for the Loan Fund for the relief of the congregation have fallen very much below the amount anticipated. Inasmuch as the Board holds the title, and is responsible for the prompt payment of the interest, much embarrassment arises, and therefore specific instructions are asked. The amount against the property on mortgage is $4,900.00 ; the claim of the Board for payments on loans, not including $1,450.00 interest paid, is $4,079.00.

Carnahan's Creek is in the great mission field of Kansas, forty miles distant from any of our churches, and has undisputed possession of its territory. With commendable spirit they have raised $800.00 for the house.

Des Moines.—The congregation of Des Moines has entered its very suitable, comfortable and desirable church, built at a cost of about $11,000.00. The most gratifying results are already visible, and the action of the Assembly, in granting the help without which the former hopeless struggle would have been continued, is fully vindicated.

Hepburn.—The congregation of North Page established a mission station at Hepburn, a thriving railroad town within its bounds. By the aid of the Board a very comfortable house has been erected, and an important field secured.

Lawrence.—The congregation of Lawrence, Mass., has been greatly revived under the pastoral labors of Rev. R. A. McAyeal, D. D. A debt of over $4,000.00 still remains, and application has been made for additional help. The field is a very important one, and there is ample encouragement as to the ultimate success of the congregation. But exposed to peculiarly strong disintegrating influences, without surrounding support, pecuniary or moral, the members dependent on very low wages, the removal of this debt seems to be beyond their ability. The Board asks specific instructions.

Lenox.—The congregation of Lenox, Taylor Co., Iowa, is in an energetic and prosperous community, and has shown the true spirit of mission work. With a house nearly completed, it has good prospects of continued growth and usefulness.

McKeesport.—The congregation of McKeesport had just completed a substantial church, when the members were overwhelmed by the financial disasters which fell on our manufacturing interests. A combination of other unfavorable circumstances made their case well nigh hopeless. Taking heart by the aid given by the Board, the debt has been nearly removed, and the spiritual life of the members greatly strengthened. Of the amount given, $510.00 were by the Presbytery of Westmoreland.

Port Huron.—The Board has completed the payments on the Port Huron property, and has received a deed in fee simple. It is the agreement that the title shall be restored, subject to the regulations of the Board and the General Assembly, on the payment of $7,000.00 by the congregation. It was deemed better not to make final arrangements for the payments until the congregation has had time to increase in strength.

San Jose.—The San Jose mission has built an attractive house, 50 by 72 feet, at a cost of $6,500.00. A debt of near $1,900.00 remained, but with the income from the house on the rear of the lot, this need give them no trouble.

Santa Ana and Wampum.—The appropriations to Santa Ana, Cal., and to Wampum, Pa., were supplemental to aid granted last year.

Sharon.—The appropriation to Sharon, Pa., was made after a careful investigation by the Corresponding Secretary in person. The present embarrassment of the congregation is the result of mismanagement many years ago. The contributions of the Presbytery for the coming year, estimated at $500.00, and $150.00 were granted on conditions which will secure the removal of the debt.

Whitinsville.—The congregation of Whitinsville, Mass., numbers 94 members, being an increase of 21 during the year. Separated from any opportunity to worship according to their convictions, they look to us for help. They have received the favor of the people about them, and have shown their self-sacrificing spirit by paying for a lot and subscribing out of their low wages $1,670 for a church in which to meet at their own will.

SPECIAL.

Boston.—The Corresponding Secretary visited the Boston congregation according to the instructions of the General Assembly, and will report to you. As the debt is very large, and its removal by the congregation in its present condition is altogether hopeless, it will be necessary for the General Assembly to decide what course should be taken in reference to it. The Board therefore thought it better not to take any action.

THE LOAN FUND.

The receipts for the Load Fund have been $3,130.31, of which $1,953.04 were loans repaid. The fund now amounts to $54,982.11, including the Illinois loan fund, $2,839.50.

The matured loans unpaid amount to $12,217.15. The Board has pressed the payment as much as possible, but the replies are that payments at the present time are not possible. The extension of time has been granted in a number of cases, and several applications for the release of the loan in whole or in part are before the Board. In view of the universal depression, other applications will doubtless be made. The General Assembly is therefore asked to define the course of action to be followed.

Loans Repaid.—The congregations of Beaver Falls, Edgerton and Westminster have repaid their loans; Aledo, Alexis, Americus, Arkansas City, Chetopa, Cuba, Kansas City, Pawnee City and Winchester have made payments.

CHURCH PLANS.

Correspondence has been opened with an architect concerning plans for churches. The propriety of publishing these in the annual report is submitted to the General Assembly.

ESTIMATES.

The Board requests the same appropriation as in former years, and also asks that measures be taken to secure to this work its proper ratio of the contributions of the church.

MEMBERS AND VACANCIES.

During a part of the year the President of the Board, Rev. D. M. B. McLean, has been prevented by severe illness from attending the meetings. The loss of his counsels has been very much felt, and your prayers are asked for his recovery.

Rev. J. M. Johnston, having removed to another part of the church, resigned his membership, and Rev. J. M. Fulton was elected to the vacancy.

The term of office of Mr. Wm. Reed, Rev. J. M. Fulton and Rev. J. R. Kyle expires with this year.

From the above statement it appears that the Board has carried forward its work during the year in the usual way, and with about the same success as in former years. We have not accomplished as much as we hoped we could. With more generous contributions of money and original matter for publication from the church and brethren, we might have done much more.

By our constitution and charter we are required to "purchase or print and circulate the Holy Scriptures, or parts of the Holy Scriptures, in the authorized version, together with the psalms in metre according to the version approved by the United Presbyterian Church."

Also, "to select and publish such tracts, papers, periodicals and books as shall be a sound and suitable religious literature for Sabbath schools, ministers, congregations, and the community at large, and to take such measures as may be necessary for the distribution and circulation of the same."

The Board has always endeavored, to the extent of the resources placed at its disposal for the purpose, to circulate the Holy Scriptures with the psalms in metre. As the circulation of the Scriptures is an essential part of the work of the church, we trust the Assembly may be able to devise measures by which this part of our work may be greatly extended.

It is also the duty of the Board to supply our Sabbath schools with a suitable literature. Heretofore, partly on account of debt on our new building, and for other reasons, we have not always been able to have on hand such a large and choice selection of Sabbath school books, including helps for teachers and scholars, as we wished.

We propose in the future to give particular attention to this department of our work. We will keep only such books as have been selected with care and judgment, and in sufficient style and variety to suit the capacities of our children and youth.

For a time, at least, we will necessarily be largely dependent on other Boards and publishing houses for our books. But as we are persuaded that our own ministers are well qualified to furnish the manuscripts for such books as will be more suitable for us than most of those we can select from other sources, we will continue to urge and encourage them to engage more freely in the production of this kind of literature.

It should also be our aim to provide everything needed by teachers, scholars and parents as helps in Sabbath school work, such as notes, question books, &c.

If competent persons can be found to prepare these, the Board will cheerfully undertake to print and circulate them. It is a reproach to our church and ministry that while we hold, as we properly do, to principles and practices which distinguish us from other denominations of evangelical Christians, we do so little, through the press, to publish them to the world, and take so little pains to indoctrinate our youth by means of a suitable denominational literature.

In this age, when the press exerts such an important influence in forming and directing religious thought, it is idle for us to hope that we can turn it into channels favorable to our denomination and principles, while leaving it almost wholly to other denominations to supply the books for our Sabbath school libraries, and the notes and helps used by our teachers!

Could we not have "Notes," such as those of "Barnes" or "Jacobus," on every portion of Scripture, prepared by our own men, and published by our own Board, and even better adapted to our wants and work than those named, or others which are used? As the Sabbath school lessons for next year will be in Genesis and Matthew, would it not be well for the Board, under the direction of the Assembly, to attempt something in this line at once?

Hitherto we have undertaken but little in the way of colportage work. If the Assembly can make any suggestions to the Board, or can give any directions which will enable us to engage in this work and safely and successfully carry it on, our sphere of usefulness will be greatly enlarged. We ought to feel that as a church the divine Head requires us to do something commensurate with our ability in giving, through the press, an evangelical literature to the world. There are still vast multitudes in our land that can be reached only by the colporteur and tract distributor. Are we doing our part to reach these and give them needed religious instruction? If this work, in some respects missionary work of the most valuable character, was entered upon by us, would not our people freely furnish us with the means for its efficient prosecution?

Since the meeting of the last Assembly we have published the "Digest," and but little besides. We were willing and anxious to publish more than we have done, had suitable matter for the purpose been put into our hands. The Board, by means of a circular printed in the church papers during the year, called upon the brethren of the ministry more particularly, to furnish us with original tracts on subjects of religious doctrine or duty, that we might be able to supply a want that many of our ministers and people deeply feel, but we regret to say that the response to our call was not encouraging.

Having now presented our condition and work—the work that we have done and what we feel should be done—it only remains for us to make known to the Assembly our wants.

These are, chiefly, 1st. Generous contributions to enable us to do more in the way of aiding mission stations, weak Sabbath schools, destitute persons, &c., by donations of books and tracts.

2d. Original works for publication; especially tracts and suitable books for our Sabbath school scholars and teachers.

3d. The earnest sympathy and co-operation of the church, particularly of our ministry, in every department of our work.

Respectfully submitted, by order of the Board.

J. C. BOYD, Corresponding Secretary.

In accordance with the instructions of the Assembly, aid has been continued. He is now attending Westminster College.

During the present month, the money reported "on hand" has been invested with the permanent funds of the Board, except $47.87 now in hands of Treasurer.

III.—THE BOARD.

Our report of last year showed an indebtedness to the funds of the Speer estate of $1,032.14. The proposition made by the Board was this: That if the church, during the year, would contribute the funds necessary to carry forward our work, on our part we would seek to collect from other sources a sufficient amount to meet remaining liabilities. The church has performed her part of this work. Our financial statement shows that the sum of $943.00 has been collected from former beneficiaries, and placed with the permanent fund of the Board. In addition, we have pledges for the payment of $700.00 on other notes held by us against former beneficiaries.

The money received from the Speer estate has been set apart as a permanent fund, and invested as follows:

First mortgage on real estate, at 8 per cent. interest	$9,800 00
Rev. G. D. Henderson's note	700 00
Temporary loans to aid students preparing for the ministry	190 00
	$10,690 00

The note given by Rev. G. D. Henderson is now in Probate Court. Its full payment depends upon the collection of a Life Policy from the Phœnix Life Insurance Company. Should we fail in making this collection, $300.00, the money retained as salary of Corresponding Secretary, will be applied on payment of this note, and the Board may sustain a loss of $400.00. We have reason to believe that the collection will be made and the note paid in full.

In view of the enlarged resources of the Board, and the evident design of Mr. Speer, through whose bequest this money has been received, we respectfully submit the question, as to the propriety of extending aid to literary students having the ministry in view, with such limitations as the Assembly may direct.

It being evident that the demands upon us will be increased, we ask that an appropriation of $6,000 be granted the Board for the coming year.

The term of office of Rev. J. A. Reynolds, Prof. E. F. Reid and Hugh Nash, expires at this time. It is for the Assembly to elect.

Respectfully submitted,

D. MACDILL, Prest.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MINISTERIAL RELIEF.

The Board of Ministerial Relief, in presenting to the General Assembly its Sixth Annual Report, takes great pleasure in recording a year of enlarged contributions and usefulness, and the occasion to return devout thanks to Almighty God for what he has enabled it to accomplish. Its regular quarterly meetings have been held during the year, and a good degree of interest has been manifested in its deliberations by all the members. The Executive Committee has considered all applications in the interim of Board meetings, and has managed its business as promptly as circumstances would permit.

During the year six aged ministers, and the families of eleven deceased ministers have been relieved, and we have reason to know that the assistance in every instance has been most timely. It will thus be seen that our field of operations is becoming larger every year, and the Board becoming more useful in the machinery of our church management.

In accordance with instructions from the last General Assembly, the Board prepared, on the 20th of November, 1878, an address to the church, and mailed it to nearly one thousand ministers and laymen. It set forth the needs of the Board and the action of the Assembly in the matter of contributions and endowment. We trust this address has to some extent familiarized pastors and sessions with our designs and operations, and has been the means of exciting an interest in our work. We recognize the fact that the more the church knows of our operations, the more interest they will take in the Board, and the more encouragement they will extend to it.

It may not be inappropriate to again call attention here to the following items as a guide in all cases, ordinarily, in making application for relief:

1. Grants to beneficiaries are made only on application of Presbytery. When need is known to exist in any instance, the Clerk of Presbytery will please send to the Corresponding Secretary of this Board for a blank form of application, setting forth the needs, circumstances, amount required, &c., and regularly signed by Moderator and Clerk. The Board generally is governed entirely by this application, but reserves the right to accept or reject, or alter amount, as the state of the treasury or other circumstances warrant.

2. All moneys are remitted quarterly, in June, September, December and March; when an amount is granted it is ordinarily paid in four installments, as above.

3. Grants are made always for one year. If aid is needed beyond that time, the application is to be regularly renewed, accompanied by a statement of any changes that have taken place during the year in the circumstances of the applicant.

By the accounts of the Treasurer, which have been audited and found correct, there has been received during the year:—from Presbyteries, $2,354.05; Individuals, Sabbath Schools, &c., $1,055.19; interest on funds invested, $990.18. Total, $4,399.42. The expenditures have been:—for Beneficiaries, $2,250.30; Incidental, $43.00. Total, $2,293.30. It will thus be seen that while the contributions have largely increased, the expenditures have increased correspondingly. The amount of treasury balance will be absorbed by payments which will be made in June.

We append to this report a detailed statement of contributions during the past year. It will be seen that while we have been remembered liberally by some Presbyteries, we have been entirely neglected by others. Five Presbyteries—Chillicothe, Des Moines, Minnesota, Stamford and Wisconsin, have contributed nothing; the largest amount is from the Presbytery of Philadelphia. While we have been enabled from our income to meet every pressing want, we frequently notice that Presbyteries who furnish but little to our treasury are the most urgent in their demands for aid. We would call special attention to the liberality of Miss Lilla McKindley, West Galway, N. Y., for her donation of $500.00, and also to Miss Nellie D. Small, of Mercer, Pa., for her donation of $150.00, both of which have gone to assist our endowment. Other ladies have remembered us liberally, as appears by figures appended to this report. These are worthy of all praise.

We believe that by systematic and united effort, and the proper presentation of the claims of this Board, many congregations who now contribute nothing, would give liberally and be blessed in thus giving; and that one of the important subjects before the Assembly will be united systematic beneficence, as a religious duty. Although before the church as a Board for six years, Ministerial Relief is almost unknown in some sections, and its claims are not insisted on by pastors. Our cause belongs to the whole church and we ask an interest in it, in prayers and efforts, and contributions.

Former Assemblies have recommended and urged the raising of $50,000 endowment; so far, however, we have been able to secure but $15,500. This amount has been safely invested in registered government bonds. Whenever the state of the treasury has warranted, the balance above actual needs has been invested in securities paying as high a rate of interest as was consistent with absolute security. We would respectfully ask this Assembly to devise some means to secure the balance of this $50,000. That attained, we will occupy a position that will be a good guarantee that the objects of our Board will be attained, and we shall be able to devise liberal things for those who shall have claims upon us. While we propose to make use of all regular contributions, we desire to have special donations for the investment fund, and trust the Assembly will decree that such sums, as principal, shall not be used for ordinary expenses.

And while as a Board, we have good cause for encouragement and thanks to God for what he has enabled us to do during the past year, we are not at all satisfied with present attainments, but shall use renewed exertions during the coming year to still further advance the work and agitate until the Board of Ministerial Relief stands on a solid financial basis, and until the church appreciate the work and give us the proper support.

The terms of Rev. John B. Dales, D. D., Mr. John McLoughlin and Rev. J. C. Campbell, expire with this meeting of the Assembly. The Assembly is also asked to confirm the election of Mr. Jos. D. McKee as Corresponding Secretary, in place of Rev. W. W. Barr, D. D., resigned.

In conclusion we respectfully recommend:—

1. That the Assembly again direct the attention of Presbyteries to the mode of procedure in making application to the Board, and urge its claims as important and imperative.

2. That special effort be made to carry out the repeated resolutions of former Assemblies in the matter of the $50,000 endowment, and to decree that special contributions for endowment shall be used for no other purpose.

3. That as a worthy object of beneficence, we ask Christian men and women to remember this Board when making bequests, and give back to God, in the persons of his aged servants, what he has blessed them with during life.

JOSEPH D. McKEE, Secretary.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON NARRATIVE AND STATE OF RELIGION.

Reports have been received by the committee from fifty-four Presbyteries. These, together with other material placed at our disposal, have enabled us to make up the following summary and judgment upon the Narrative and State of Religion for the year now ending.

From the ranks of the ministry, six persons have been called to their rest and reward: The Revs. J. W. Wait, W. C. Jackson, James Wallace, W. J. McAllister, Joseph McClintock and W. H. Andrew. Of these, two were men of advanced age, who had retired from active duty in the ministry. The others were in the vigor of their years. One of them was a member of the last Assembly, and took an earnest part in its proceedings.

The Rev. Joshua W. Wait was born in Canada, in the year 1841, but was carried by his parents to Coshocton Co., Ohio, where he was reared. He graduated at Westminster College, and after his licensure, taught in the Freedmen's school, at Nashville, Tenn. For several years he labored preaching the gospel at Hopewell, Tenn. Failing health drove him from his work, and he died at Americus, Kan., Dec. 17, 1878, in the 38th year of his age. As teacher and preacher, he was earnest and conscientious, and he has left behind him the record of one who served his Master faithfully and well.

The Rev. W. C. Jackson was born near Cedarville, O., Dec. 21, 1828. He received part of his education at Miami University, and part at Danville, Ky., where he graduated in 1848. He pursued his theological studies at the Associate Theological Seminary located at Canonsburg, and was installed pastor of the congregation at Greenville, Pa., Feb. 7, 1854. Sent to Chicago in 1861, he there labored earnestly for several years, but retiring, was installed pastor of the 4th church, Philadelphia, in 1868. He died smitten by incurable disease, in the midst of his usefulness, and has gone to his reward.

The Rev. Joseph McClintock was one of the older ministers, his death occurring at the age of 69. He was born in Washington Co., Pa., Feb. 10, 1810, and graduating at Franklin College, O., studied theology at Canonsburg. The Presbytery of Miami ordained him, Aug. 13, 1846, and after preaching many years, both as pastor and itinerant, he was forced to reduce his labors and seek the repair of his wasted health. In Virginia, whither he went with his family, he gave frequent assistance in teaching the Freedmen, preaching, also, as he had opportunity. He died suddenly in the spring of 1879.

The name of the Rev. James Wallace is associated in the history of the church with the oldest of its living ministers. In early life he settled in what was then the "West," where he continued to reside and labor for many years. His last charge was that of Huntsville, Logan Co., O., from which, however, he retired several years ago, because of infirmities which unfitted him for the discharge of his duties. He was a good man and a useful preacher of the gospel, and he died as one of the fathers of the church, respected and honored by all.

The Rev. W. J. McAllister was born in Washington Co., N. Y., though he was reared mainly in Ohio and Illinois. His life was an eventful one. In 1862 he entered the army, where he remained till the close of the war, taking part in many battles, and marching with Sherman to the sea. In 1866 he made a profession of his faith in Christ, and having pursued his studies, both academic and theological, at Monmouth, he was licensed to preach by the Presbytery of Chicago in 1871. He was, for a time, settled in Wheatland, and after resigning its pastoral care, he preached in several places as itinerant and stated supply, and always with earnestness and power. He died Feb. 9, 1879, in the 47th year of his age.

The Rev. W. H. Andrew was well known in all parts of the church. His first pastoral settlement was in Washington, Iowa, and he was afterwards placed successively in Unity and Ripley, Canonsburg, Pa., and Lawrenceville. Three years ago he located at Galt, in the Dominion of Canada, where he died after less than a day's illness, March 30, 1879. He was a strong, active man, giving promise of many years of efficient service, but the Lord, who placed him in the ministry, accepted his work as ended and called him home.

These brethren have all gone at the call of the Master. In their removal, we, who are left behind, are reminded that we are to be diligent in our work, and to stand with our loins girt looking for the coming of the Lord.

But if some are removed, others are raised up to take their places. It is the Lord's work and will not be permitted to fail; hence we learn that twenty-six young men have been licensed and twenty-nine ordained. As indicating, also, the changes going on in the churches, we find that forty-five have been released from their charges, and that sixty-two have been installed. While there has been but little general awakening, there has been a steady dispensation of the means of grace. In nearly all the Presbyteries there have been occasions of special worship which were well observed; and of communions, there has been an average of three to each congregation, with two and one-half preliminary and thanksgiving week day services. Among the results of these and other instrumentalities, are 4,220 persons added to the church upon profession of their faith, of whom 619 are recorded under the head of adult baptisms. The sum of $787,530 contributed to religious uses and objects, expresses in a general way the devotion exhibited by those who, as members of the church, are enjoying its privileges and seeking its establishment and growth. It is to be hoped that other results equally and even more important, though incapable of statement in statistics, have been gained, and that the church is infinitely richer in love and thanksgiving than it was a year ago. If this be so, its services have not been in vain, and the year to come will be still more hopefully visited with the divine blessing.

The general tone of these reports is that of thanksgiving. So far as figures can do it, they tell of goodness and mercy and the loving kindness of the Lord. They contain many suggestions of pastoral peace and faithfulness, and present before the mind beautiful pictures of holy people gratefully enjoying the means of grace and gladly giving themselves to the service of the Master. The morning and evening sacrifice with families gathered about domestic altars; Sabbath Schools full of happy children seeking to obey and serve the Master who loves them; congregations meeting Sabbath after Sabbath to pray, and praise, and preach and hear the gospel; communion occasions full of tender associations and sacred under the blessings of a present Saviour; all these and other delightful scenes and occasions are brought to our notice. To look at them is to have the heart stirred with a sense of thankfulness as they seem, also, to express the devotion of thousands of souls who say, "I sat down under his shadow with great delight, and his fruit was sweet to my taste. He brought me into his banqueting house and his banner over me was love." But the picture is by no means perfect. It is deformed by many defects and blemishes, for thus, while it tells us family worship is, in general, well observed, it also informs us that in some situations it is but poorly attended to; and we therefore think of homes in which the light of piety is burning low through want of oil in the lamps. While it tells us family instruction is encouragingly observed, it expresses the fact that in many places it is almost wholly neglected; and we have before us children growing up without a knowledge of the gospel, and promising but little for the church of the future. It tells us that prayer meetings are widely established and well attended, and yet, that in respect to some of them, there is carelessness and coldness, that young persons are but little interested, that "men" almost wholly neglect them, and that in a few congregations there are no prayer meetings at all. The prayer meeting is the "thermometer of the church," measuring the fervor of its piety and the volume of its devotion, and wherever it is wanting, there is a lack of vital godliness and spiritual power. And so in respect to all else relating to the church life and work, there is the general expression of blessing and call to gratitude, with the associated confession of sin and failure, and with the specific and sometimes emphatic acknowledgment that the cause has dwarfed in its character and receded from its positions. In all that is unhappy, there is the reflection, perhaps, of an unfaithful ministry and prayerless people, and the suggestion of wasted resources and lost opportunities. But there is also the hint of pastoral woe, as the servant of God has seen his work refusing to prosper in his hand; and of an experimental appreciation of the prophet's cry, "Who hath believed our report, and to whom is the arm of the Lord revealed?" and even of the Saviour's yearning complaint, as seeing his truth despised and his blood trampled under foot, he says, "Ye will not come unto me that ye might have life."

In this connection it is proper to refer to two classes of persons of whose devotion many of the reports speak hesitatingly and some of them discouragingly. These are the youth and the non-professors. In respect to the first, a few Presbyteries say they are diligent and devout in their attendance upon the public means of grace, others intimate that they are careless, while some mention their disposition to "wander off" as among the difficulties of their work. It is not too much to say that the hope of the church is in its youth; they who are born and reared within its pale, and who inherit the traditions of its name and character, are needed to perpetuate its principles and execute its mission. They have a power which their adopted brethren can rarely exercise. Their church they associate with other institutions and surroundings that give form and feature to their early lives. It is part of their childhood as much as their native home and the old roof-tree, and its principles and usages, under proper instruction and influences, become dear to them both as the appointments of God and the heritages of their birth-right.

The work done in Sabbath Schools is reported by statistics as follows: number of schools, 726; officers and teachers, 7,647; scholars, 65,467. With this number of children under public instruction in the church, there ought to be a good attendance of the youth upon the regular services of the sanctuary. It might be pertinent to ask if the schools are always so conducted as to foster the thought that they and the church are one, and that the boy and girl who is in the former ought, all the more, therefore, to be in the latter. And it might also be well to enquire if the exercises of the Sabbath Schools are so conducted, in decorum, and devoutness, and seriousness, as to make them harmonize with the reverent worship of the house of God. For in proportion as the schools are made to be simple entertainments in the use of their appliances, in the same proportion will they fail to contribute to the number of those that wait upon the preaching of the gospel. But conceding that part of the youthful devotion is given to the Sabbath Schools which would otherwise be expected in the church services, even this—itself an evil—will not conciliate the spirit of disappointment that seems to be embraced in these statistics. It becomes us then to enquire if we are doing what we ought for our youth. Are we giving them that nurture and admonition to which they are entitled? Are we presenting before them the attractions of piety in the sweet maturity of its experience and exemplification, as we seek to prove that the cross is our glory and that Jesus is our all? Are we cultivating in them a generous attachment to our principles and a liberal enthusiasm on behalf of the truth we profess and which we are appointed to propagate? The church without its proportion of interested youth, is a church sapless and deformed; the "happy" people is one whose "sons are as plants grown up in their youth," whose "daughters are as corner-stones polished after the similitude of a palace."

Of those called "non-professors," the attendance upon the Sabbath worship and prayer meetings is not large. From a few places it is reported as encouraging, and from a very few as "excellent," but most of the congregations mention it as slight. If we suppose that a majority of these are persons reared in the church and otherwise known as "adherents," we will have but few who, from the actual "world," are seeking the truth and blessings of the gospel. As our mission is to sinners, and as we are to go out into the streets and lanes of the cities and compel them to come in, it is but right that we should question ourselves as to the performance of our duty. Upon every member of the church, ministerial and lay, rests the obligation of personal effort. We are all sent to invite the lost to come to Jesus and be saved. Blessed with the riches of divine grace, and persuaded of the joys of a Christian experience, we are expected to tell to others what God has done for our souls, and lead them to the source of all our happiness. The confession of the brethren through these reports seems to be that we are at fault in our missionary work, and that enjoying the comforts of our religious homes, we permit ourselves to forget or neglect the stranger that is within our gates. If such a fault exist, there should be no delay in seeking to correct it. Perishing souls need our instant ministry, and our own souls require that we shall give it.

The question as to how the churches shall reach and influence the unbelieving in their immediate neighborhoods, is one of increasing interest. It includes, first of all, of course, the concern Christians are to feel and manifest towards men as sinners who are living and dying without a knowledge of Christ and without a hope of salvation; but it involves, also, a consideration of right and efficient church work and influence, the adaptation of means to ends, the training of voluntary workmen, with other questions of a kindred character, together with the thought of the duty that is due to the social and public life of our communities. In view of these facts, the reference to "non-professors" in these reports is one of their important features.

It is gratifying to know that the work, on the whole, has made an encouraging advance. Its average result is that of improvement. This is true both as to its spirit and practical gains. The loss here has been more than over-balanced by the gain there, and the discouragement in one place has been met by the prosperity of another. From our institutions of learning, word is to the effect that they have not been without special blessing. The Spirit of the Lord has been given in answer to the prayers of teachers and other friends, and these sources of future influence and control have been made to feel his quickening power. In one of our theological seminaries, the advance has been so marked as to call forth the congratulations and excite the gratitude of all its friends. In the other seminary, the improvement has been no less distinct. It has manifested itself in increased devotion to all the duties of the school, and in a better exemplification of Christian experience on the part of the students. Similar testimony comes from some of the colleges, the professors in which have the pleasure of seeing their pupils grow more diligent in the discharge of academic duty as they also steadily grow in grace and the knowledge of the Lord. The prayers of the church should not be withheld from these institutions of learning and training. In them are gathered the sons and daughters from all parts of our Zion, and what the church of the future will be must depend more or less upon their character as it is formed amid their school associations, as this, also, depends upon the faith and prayers of the church which plead with God on behalf of its children. For all that is encouraging let us not fail to give thanks to the Lord. To him be all the glory. "It is not by might, nor by power, but by my Spirit, saith the Lord." Let us honor that Spirit by increasing humility and dependence and by an ever deepening gratitude. But the vine that is bearing fruit is to be purged that it may bring forth more fruit, and if this discipline be sent to us, let us rejoice that to us it is "given—graciously given—in the behalf of Christ, not only to believe on him, but to suffer for his sake."

The "hindrances" have been many. In some places specific ones do not seem to have caused much trouble, and the complaint is of the general evil agencies that will always exist to fight against the truth. In others the interruptions have been so distinct as to be visible, as well as injurious. And it is a remarkable fact that some of the most discouraging statements come from situations where the church is strongest and the populations thickest and most in need. From restricted and inhospitable fields there is word of hard work and opposing influences; but of gain and encouragement. "We are still in the wilderness, but working and making progress," writes one. Says another, situated on the frontier, "Our progress is slow, but we are steadily gaining ground." These are but samples; but in more than one instance the reply from central situations is emphatic, "We have lost." This fact of recession in responsible places is one that is lamented by several denominations. They bewail the loss of ground and strength, and the failure of the church to build up with the increasing populations and to maintain its relative numerical and material power. The migratory habits of the people will partly account for it, though even this is a helpless apology, for if, in thickly settled neighborhoods a family move away it ought to be but to make room in the house of God for another. The product of the church in the youth it graduates from its homes and Sabbath Schools, and the gains it makes by work upon the world, ought to more than replace the loss caused by deaths and removals. And if while the population of the country, and especially of the cities is increasing, there is a decline, it is a sign that there is something wanting in the church and Christians. What is it? The word and ordinances are regularly dispensed, and at no time in the history of the church has there been more active interest in sowing the seed and cultivating the field for the harvest. At no time, either, has there been greater Christian comfort amid the peace and security of providential care. Why, then, the complaint, "We have lost?" We know the fault is not in the gospel. We know, also, God is waiting to be gracious—that he stands ready to prove his promise and pour out his blessing until there shall not be room enough to receive. Is it so that because of little faith and prayer the Spirit's baptism is withheld? Is the seed sown without being accompanied by the petitions and tears of those who scatter it? For this is a phase of the church life that cannot be determined by a reference to Boards and beneficiary appliances. "Reorganization" has nothing to do with it. It is a condition existing along with the fact that the gospel has been preached ably and regularly, and where it has the traditions of past success to conciliate its enemies and commend its messengers.

Another remarkable fact, and one which may to some extent be explanatory of the foregoing, is this: the "hindrances" are nearly all from within. There is no complaint of persecution. No one tells of intrusion or disturbance by force or malice. No one seems to have suffered from violence either of man or the elements. A few, indeed, tell of trouble from "secretism," "depression in trade," "public unrest," &c., but these are only the few as compared with the many. Nearly all confess that their chief trouble grows out of something wanting in the church itself—something wrong in Christian faith and practice. The long list is of "worldly mindedness," "inharmony," "disagreements," "lack of prayer," "want of spirituality," "indifference," "social dissipation," "Sabbath desecration," "want of reverence," "too little praying on the part of both ministers and people." These are the obstructions which hinder the progress of the gospel, and they are in Christians, pastors and parishioners, rather than in the world outside. The statement is humiliating, but it is good to have it plainly made. We have prayed to God to show us our sins, and why he contends with us, and we have his reply in this almost universal testimony from the Presbyteries.

Current observation coincides with what is recorded here—that the prevailing tendency of the Christian life is in the direction of worldliness. Every period or epoch has its phenomena, and this is one of those which mark the present. The disposition is in the direction of secularization, and so strongly, that the church is compelled to offer at times, as its chief attraction, that which is hostile to the spirit of the cross. Men find their chief delight, not in Christ and his gospel, but in some accessory which, under the name of religion, but appeals to their sensual appetites. The cross is hidden, and the "lust of the flesh, the lust of the eye and the pride of life" appear in its stead. The joy of the Lord, and the gladness of communion with him in the spirit of the gospel, is bartered away for the poor equivalent of a formal service and the license of carnal pleasure. It is not strange, amid these conditions, that there is a lack of "reverence," an excess of "social dissipation," a "want of prayer on the part of both ministers and people." Neither is it strange, as we know to be the fact, that Christians are beginning to cultivate the drama, to clamor for the liberty of the opera, and to revolt against the sacred observance of the Lord's day; or that ministers should begin to teach that the theatre should be no longer put under the ban of Christian prohibition. With spiritual experience dwarfing in the souls of Christians, church secularization and loss of power are inevitable.

There is in all this an admonition to the ministry. Let it not fail to receive it. If the body of the church is to be quickened into a better life, the improvement must begin with those who preach the gospel; and it will begin as they determine anew to know nothing but Christ and him crucified, and to live nearer him in holy faith and fellowship. With a rightly consecrated ministry failure is impossible.

But it suggests also that the whole body of Christians needs to separate itself more distinctly from the world and to live more exclusively for Christ. It is impossible to be worldlings and Christians at once. If men will be "lovers of pleasure more than lovers of God," they simply travesty the holy solemnity of the gospel. "Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world." Oh! that we may learn this in the fullness of its meaning, and turn to Jesus in the spirit of those who, in the joy of a holy consecration, take up the cross and follow him. "Wherefore, Jesus also that he might sanctify the people with his own blood, suffered without the gate. Let us go forth, therefore, with him without the camp bearing his reproach."

God is giving us some remarkable exhibitions of his power and grace, as he is opening up the world to the gospel. More than that, he is giving a success to his church abroad which is greater than that with which it is blessed at home. In France Protestants are in power, and the recent revolt from popery has been so great in some places that whole villages have abandoned it and acknowledged the truer faith of the gospel. In other countries there is a growth of religious liberty, and an increasing opportunity for missionary practice; and even in Rome the good work goes on, and the seed being more abundantly sown is bearing its fruit. The opening up of Africa, by recent explorations and the progress of material improvements, followed by more active missionary effort, leads us to believe that it will soon be the "dark continent" no longer. The success of the missionary work among the Teloogoos in India has been such as to almost surpass that of the day of Pentecost, and our own missionaries in that country report that their labors are being acknowledged by unusual tokens and blessing. While the work is thus extending and the kingdom advancing, it ought to be the aim of the church in its central positions to strengthen itself by seeking new grace and added power. Its heart should beat more strongly, its hands should be ready for every holy service, and it should present, in all its ministry, and membership, and life, a growing likeness to the Lord who bought it with his own blood.

By order of the committee.

REPORT OF THE PERMANENT COMMITTEE ON SABBATH SCHOOLS.

According to the most careful count we can make, there are seven hundred and forty-three Sabbath Schools in the United Presbyterian Church. Seven hundred and six of these are in the home, and thirty-seven in the foreign field. From forty-three schools we can get no information, either through the minutes of the last Assembly or through reports to the Permanent Committee. From different sources we find that in seven hundred schools there are sixty-seven thousand six hundred and twenty-one scholars enrolled, and that these are officered and taught by eight thousand and one persons, or in other words, by about one-tenth of our entire church membership. These bare figures are very suggestive as they appear on paper, but clothe them with flesh and blood, let an immortal soul beat in each one, and some faint idea of the great importance of the matters now presented for your thoughtful and prayerful consideration may be obtained.

In our Sabbath School work, as a denomination, we have made great advances during the past few years. We have turned our attention to it as a whole, as we never did before, and in our Assemblies and Synods and Presbyteries have shown a fuller appreciation of its wants and a more earnest desire for its increased efficiency. Still our church is, as yet, behind some other denominations in systematic supervision and control of the general Sabbath School work, and we are suffering in consequence. Hoping to speak more definitely in reference to these matters before we close our report, permit us to lay before you some interesting statistics, which present as well as statistics can the work in this department for the past year.

Blanks were sent through the Stated Clerks of Presbyteries to all the schools in the church, excepting those in the foreign fields, and more schools have reported to your committee this year than in any year previous. This would be encouraging were it not for the fact that of the seven hundred and forty-three schools in the church, one hundred and ninety, or about one-fourth, have neglected to respond to our earnest request for a report, which could be filled in five or ten minutes and sent to us at a cost of three cents.

Upon these statistics we offer the following remarks and suggestions:

Size of Schools.—The majority of our schools, as of all Sabbath Schools in the land, are small, and are found in country neighborhoods. In consequence of this our counsels and suggestions, especially in reference to details, to be of any practical value, must be suited largely to their circumstances, rather than to the circumstances surrounding our larger city and mission schools. This fact should be carefully borne in mind by us in our conferences, conventions and church courts.

Months Open.—The large number of schools that are open all the year speaks well for the faithfulness and earnestness of those who have them in charge. Those that are open only part of the year are generally found in districts where the roads are bad in winter and the church or place of meeting a good distance from the homes of the people. During the past year a number of the schools heretofore open only during the summer months, have been kept open during the whole year. We suggest that where it is at all possible, it is wise to have a session of the school every Sabbath.

Attendance of Scholars.—When compared with the total enrollment, the average attendance of the scholars is not what it ought to be. The difference between the two suggests the need of systematic and persistent watchfulness and work on the part of parents, officers and teachers during the coming year, in order to raise the average attendance to its proper standard. If the scholars are left to themselves to come and go as they please, both school and scholars will be the losers.

Children of Non-Professing Parents.—We must be careful of the six thousand two hundred and eighty-five scholars in our schools, "whose parents are not professing Christians." Very few of them, we are sure, receive good religious instruction at home, and where the godly example and Christian counsel of God-fearing fathers and mothers are wanting, the watchfulness and prayerfulness of Christian pastors and teachers must be doubled.

The Children at Church.—The fact that so many of the scholars are reported as being in attendance upon the public services of the church, is evidence that in our denomination the Sabbath School is not, at least to any alarming extent, looked upon as "the children's church," and that it does not take the place of the sanctuary in their experience.

Church Members at School.—Nearly twelve thousand members of the church are in attendance as scholars, benefiting themselves and each other by their systematic study of the Word of God; encouraging the teachers of young scholars by their presence, and exerting by their example an influence that will, by God's blessing, be instrumental in retaining the younger scholars in the school and church when they grow older. We believe the day is coming when our schools will contain all that are in the church, old as well as young; when the adult scholars will perhaps outnumber the others, and these twelve thousand are helping that day forward. May their numbers largely increase during the coming year!

Teachers not Church Members.—The fact, that only 33 out of 6,538 officers and teachers are reported as non-professing Christians, leads us to the conclusion that the question so often and so largely discussed in Sabbath School conventions and conferences, "Should unconverted persons be employed as teachers?" is no longer one of such practical importance as to justify our workers in spending so much valuable time over it. It is to be hoped that these thirty-three will, before the next Assembly meets, be found enrolled in heaven and on earth among the disciples of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Attendance of Pastors.—As a rule, with very few exceptions, pastors have been very regular in their attendance upon the sessions of the Sabbath School. We record this to their praise. The majority of them have had charge of adult Bible classes.

Attendance of Ruling Elders.—It is very gratifying to find the ruling elders so well represented in this department of our church work. The direction of our Directory for Worship, that the Sabbath School shall be under the supervision of the session, is surely not a dead letter. Complaints do come from some schools that they do not receive the support and encouragement of their ruling elders, but these complaints are happily few and far between.

Scholars Making Profession of Faith.—With gratitude to God we record the fact that 1,944 scholars made public profession of their faith in our Lord Jesus Christ during the past twelve months, an average of more than five for each day in the year. Full reports would doubtless place the number higher. Of course we do not mean to say that these were added to the church solely through the instrumentality of the Sabbath School. Far from it. We all—pastors, parents, teachers and friends—rejoice together. But does not the fact that so many out of the school enter the church illustrate the necessity of having intelligent, pious, prayerful, earnest teachers in all our schools, well equipped not only by the Lord but by the church, for dealing with immortal souls?

The Shorter Catechism.—Judging from the reports which have come to us, the Shorter Catechism is used in our schools more largely than for many years past. Every year adds to the number of classes in which it is taught. In order that the children may take to it more kindly, we suggest in all earnestness that fathers, mothers and brethren in the ministry and out of it, who have never committed it to memory, or who have almost forgotten it, endeavor now to master it.

Libraries.—Libraries seem to be disappearing from our schools. Comparatively few have been reported. There is much dissatisfaction with the general character of the books heretofore furnished, at which we are neither surprised nor grieved. As a rule the books furnished by irresponsible parties for ten years or more have nourished a taste for light reading that will not be satisfied with books of such a character as ought to be read. To counteract this, the formation of libraries, under the control of the session, or under the control of a judicious committee, containing books of a general character, such as history, biography and travels, as well as books of a decidedly religious character, to be opened some time on a week day or evening, might be a help. Far better have no libraries, than have books put into the hands of the scholars under the guise of Sabbath School literature, that are read and valued only for the excitement of the stories they tell.

Current Expenses and Contributions.—It is a matter of regret that while the current expenses of the schools reporting amounted, during the year, to $14,231, or about 25 cents per scholar, only $2,864 of this amount came directly from the treasuries of the congregations with which these schools are connected. The balance came from the treasuries of the schools, as they were supplied by the contributions of the teachers and scholars. This is not as it should be. The church ought to support the school, and support it liberally, and let the contributions of the school be given to some definite missionary work outside of itself. We do not see any improvement in this matter since our last report to the Assembly.

Some additional facts presented in the school reports, we deem worthy of laying before you.

Discouragements.—These are varied. The special discouragement most dwelt upon by individual schools is the indifference of parents. There are so many parents who do not show any interest in the work, who could do so if they would, either by occasionally visiting the school, or by securing the preparation of the school lesson at home.

Encouragements.—Among the special encouragements reported we note, as being the most prominent, the presence of the elders, additions to the church, increased interest on the part of teachers and scholars, and the large number of young men and young women in attendance.

Sabbath School Music.—The call for improved Sabbath School music is more urgent than it was last year, and complaint is made that the Book of Selections, authorized by the last Assembly, has not yet made its appearance. Other parties have in the meantime attempted to supply the demand in our church for Sabbath School music, and are rapidly introducing their publications—far more rapidly, perhaps, than some are willing to admit. Figures in our possession on this point are very suggestive. We simply state the fact and leave it with you.

Helps for Teachers and Scholars.—There is a pressing call coming from all quarters of the church for additional helps in the way of notes, papers, quarterlies and question books. The notes for teachers prepared during the past year under the direction of the committee, by Drs. Harper and Stewart, have been second to none published on the International Series of Lessons, and have received hearty commendations from many who have used them. Good notes are also found in the United Presbyterian and Christian Instructor, and helps for scholars in the Little Preacher and Youth's Evangelist. But these are not enough to meet the wants of the average Sabbath School teacher or scholar. Those who have been trained in our theological schools, and those who are not actively engaged in the work of teaching, may not appreciate clearly the wants of the ordinary teacher, and may think the called-for helps unnecessary; but we lay the matter before you as one requiring prompt and wise action. We can name nine different monthlies and quarterlies in use in our schools, some of them very extensively, representing Baptist, Methodist, Congregational and Presbyterian Churches; and what is far worse, some representing little but the covetousness of those who publish them. They are taken not because the notes found in them are superior to the notes furnished by our own writers, but because they provide these additional side helps that are so much appreciated by the untrained teacher. If our schools are to be thoroughly United Presbyterian, the United Presbyterian Church must furnish all the United Presbyterian helps that are required. There is such a thing as being penny-wise and pound-foolish in carrying on our denominational work.

We are pleased to state that the editor and publishers of the Worker, which is hereafter to be known as the Bible Teacher, are enlarging the monthly and improving it, and will endeavor as far as they can to meet more fully the wants of our teachers. Your committee has prevailed upon Drs. W. J. Reid and Robert Stewart, brethren whose fitness for the work none will question, to prepare notes on the lessons for the coming year. Neither the Catechism, nor distinctive principles, will be overlooked; primary class teachers will have a place; suggestions will be given; methods of working and teaching will be discussed, and we bespeak the co-operation of all our workers and teachers.

In addition to this there is need of a suggestive Question Book to be put into the hands of the scholar, such as is furnished by other churches through their Boards of Publication.

Presbyterial Superintendents.—The Presbyterial S. S. Superintendents have, as a rule, done good service during the past year. Under their directions conventions have been held in a majority of the Presbyteries that have been productive of good results. The hope is entertained that during the coming year fuller and more frequent correspondence may be had between these brethren and the Permanent Committee, in reference to our common work. We have not been able to carry out the direction of the last Assembly in reference to a convention of Presbyterial Superintendents. Such a convention as was proposed would doubtless be profitable, but it is impossible to bring together on their own charges very many of our brethren. They are so widely scattered that the convention would only be local in its character. Your committee submits that perhaps it would be better to have one such convention or conference of Presbyterial Superintendents within the bounds of each Synod. It could be held during the sittings of Synod each year.

In conclusion we recommend the Assembly:

1. To address a brief official letter, over the signature of its Moderator and Clerk, to all the churches, urging the parents to secure home study of God's word; home preparation for the lessons of the school; the regular attendance of their children, and as far as possible of themselves upon the sessions of the school, and to bring their children with them to the house of God; urging congregations to so provide for the support of their schools out of their general funds that the contributions of the schools may be applied to the Boards and missions of the church.
2. To urge pastors and superintendents to establish normal classes for the special training of teachers, so that our standard of teaching may be raised higher.
3. In view of the proposed improvements in the Worker or Bible Teacher, to recommend its use in all our schools.
4. To authorize the Permanent Committee to have prepared a suggestive Question Book covering the lessons for 1880, at an expense not exceeding ———.
5. To appoint a Permanent Committee on Sabbath Schools, said committee to consist of nine members, three to serve for one year, three for two years, and three for three years, and three to be appointed each succeeding year, to serve for three years.

The thanks of the Assembly and of the committee are due to Drs. James Harper and Robert Stewart for the preparation of notes during the past year.

Through the liberality of a few friends we are able to lay our report before you in printed form.

We respectfully submit these matters to you, praying that you will give them that place in your prayers and deliberations which we are convinced their weighty importance calls for.

By order of the committee.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE PRESERVATION OF OLD RECORDS.

The Executive Committee on the Preservation of Records and other Historic Documents respectfully reports:

As heretofore our aim has been to secure, or at least obtain, trace of the old records of the Associate and Associate Reformed Churches, and procure histories of our congregations and of all Associate, Associate Reformed and United Presbyterian Presbyteries and Synods.

In the Assembly's Minutes of 1878, in connection with the report of this committee, will be found a list of all the old records of which we have any knowledge, and the names of the persons having possession of said records.

Since that list was prepared we have learned that the following records are in the hands of the persons named, viz.: Philadelphia Presbytery, (Associate,) Rev.

W. A. Edie; Mansfield Presbytery, (Associate Reformed,) Rev. D. H. French; the First Synod of the West, (Associate Reformed,) Rev. R. A. Browne, D. D.

We have not yet been able to find the following records: Minutes of the Presbyteries of the Carolinas, Kentucky and Monmouth, (Associate); minutes of the Presbyteries of Allegheny, Boston, Butler, Carolinas First, Carolinas Second, Illinois, Illinois Second, Le Claire, Londonderry, First Pennsylvania and Wheeling (Associate Reformed); minutes of the Synod of Pennsylvania, and of the Synod of Scioto, (Associate Reformed.)

During the winter we published a circular, through the papers of the church, in which Presbyteries were requested to collect the histories of their congregations, and have them bound with the history of Presbytery; also, that their old records, if in possession of the Presbytery, should be placed in the hands of the Stated Clerk of Presbytery; and that a report of what had been done should be made to this committee. This matter seems to have been almost entirely overlooked by Presbyteries, and therefore we are unable to report what has been done by them.

The last Assembly directed this committee to "ascertain the cost of a suitable vault for preserving histories and records," and "report to the next Assembly."

After having had an architect make a careful examination, we can state that a suitable vault can be constructed in our Theological Seminary building, Allegheny, at a cost of about three hundred dollars.

This committee was authorized by the last Assembly to organize a United Presbyterian Historical Society, and report to this Assembly. We have not organized such a society; but if the Assembly still think it would be best to do so, and so direct us, we will endeavor, as soon as practicable, to carry out the Assembly's wish.

We are anxious that the work for which this committee was constituted should be completed without any unnecessary delay and the committee discharged. We would therefore suggest,—

1st. That the Assembly urge Presbyteries, whose old records are lost, to make diligent effort to find them.

2d. That as the old records of the different Presbyteries and Synods, by direction of the Assembly of 1876, are to be retained in present hands until the work of preparing histories is completed, Presbyteries be directed to place the records of their Associate and Associate Reformed predecessors in the possession of their respective Clerks, who shall be held responsible for their safe keeping.

3d. That Presbyteries be instructed to see that the histories of their congregations are collected at once, and, for the present, placed in the keeping of the different Clerks of Presbyteries.

4th. That Presbyteries report fully and definitely all that has been done by them during the year, in relation to the work in charge of this committee, on or before the 1st of May, 1880.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON SABBATH SCHOOL MUSIC.

The Assembly of 1878 assigned to us the work of preparing and publishing selections of Psalms set to music, for the use of Sabbath Schools. This work is important both in view of the influence of music on the minds and hearts of the young, and of the many claimants for popular favor among those who do not use the inspired psalter exclusively in the ordinance of praise.

While the Psalms have real merit, placing them very far above the popular hymns of the day, yet they are not used by the great masses of Christians outside our own and kindred denominations. The reason of this, in part, is the fact that they have not been set to such music as is adapted to their sublime truths.

But no music has been given by divine inspiration, nor has any been handed down to us from the time of the temple and synagogue service, nor yet from the days of the primitive Christian church. We are therefore thrown on our own resources to provide music adapted to express the sentiments of the Psalms.

As to the kind of music that should be used for this purpose there is diversity of views in the church; some desiring to retain only the old tunes that they have been familiar with from their childhood, while others are earnestly asking for new music, more popular with the masses and more attractive to the young. The claims of both these classes should be respected. Neither has a right to deny to the other the enjoyment of such music as may be preferred. Nor should the church assume to regulate by statutory enactment a subject left without direction by her King and Head.

In our present condition the church is dependent for her increase to a very great extent on the Sabbath School. It is a sad but unleniable fact that in our churches, especially those located in towns and cities, a large proportion of the children of even professing parents are lost to the church. The attractions presented by competing schools are such as to draw them away from our own schools and thus wean them from the church. The kind of music used in these competing schools has more influence in attracting these children to them, than all other causes combined. The Psalms can be made as attractive by proper music as any other style of songs used in worship, and the church must give the necessary attention to this subject or submit to the loss of her children.

In its work the committee endeavored to keep in view the rights of all whose preferences are known and also the interests of the whole church so far as they are involved in this work.

Hence as the result of our labors one hundred and fifty selections were made from the Psalms, to which an equal number of tunes, old and new, in about equal proportions, have been adapted to the best of our ability.

A considerable part of the work was done by the members privately. Two meetings were held in the city of Pittsburgh, at the first of which all the members were present, and at the second all except one.

It was our wish to have the book ready for your examination at this meeting of the Assembly, but in this we have not succeeded.

The time intervening between the completion of the manuscripts by the committee and the meeting of the Assembly was not sufficient for the publication of the book without pushing it with such haste as would most likely have led to its imperfect execution.

Samples of our selections of psalms and music are in readiness and will be presented to the Assembly if desired.

Arrangements are nearly completed by which D. C. Cook, of Chicago, through our own Board of Publication, will issue the book as soon as practicable.

Respectfully submitted,

D. A. Duff, Chairman.

REPORT OF THE PRESBYTERY OF SAN FRANCISCO, ON THE MISSION TO THE CHINESE AT LOS ANGELES, CAL.

The Presbytery of San Francisco in charge of "The Mission to the Chinese at Los Angeles, California," begs leave to report: that in accordance with the action of the General Assembly which met at Cambridge, May 22d, 1878, transferring the mission to the Chinese on this coast to the Presbytery of San Francisco, the Presbytery, at a meeting in San Francisco, Cal., July 20th, 1878, accepted said trust, and proceeded to comply with the directions of the Assembly, to incorporate according to the laws of the State of California.

The corporation title adopted is as follows: "The United Presbyterian Presbytery of San Francisco, in connection with the United Presbyterian Church of North America." A Board of Directors was chosen for one year, consisting of three members: Revs. Alex. Calhoun, M. M. Gibson and John McKay, Esq., a ruling elder in San Francisco congregation. The above directors met in the First U. P. Church, San Francisco, August 12th, 1878, and organized, with Rev. Alex. Calhoun President, and M. M. Gibson Treasurer and Secretary. At the same meeting a code of by-laws was adopted for the government of the Board of Directors, a copy of which is filed with County Clerk, and a duplicate in the Secretary's book.

On the 3d of September, 1878, Rev. J. C. Nevin, Treasurer of the Chinese Building Fund, paid over into the hands of M. M. Gibson, Treasurer of the Presbytery of San Francisco (corporate) the sum of twelve thousand five hundred and ten dollars and twenty-six cents ($12,510.26). Of this sum twelve thousand dollars ($12,000.00) have been loaned on first-class security at ten per cent. per annum. To the original sum $299.78 have since been added, making the whole fund as it now stands $12,810.04.

The Presbytery requests the General Assembly to make the following alteration: instead of "The Mission to the Chinese at Los Angeles," to read "The Mission among the Chinese on the Pacific Coast."

The Presbytery appointed Rev. Joseph McKee teacher in the mission at Los Angeles, at a salary of fifty dollars per month; and since August last both he and his wife have taught five evenings each week in the mission. Rev. J. C. Nevin, the missionary in charge, took possession of the mission property and entered upon his work in May, 1878, since which time he has been engaged, with but little interruption, in the duties which belong to the work. He has charge of the week-day evening school, and teaches in the same. Each Wednesday evening he delivers a lecture on some portion of Scripture in the Chinese language; has a Bible class and prayer meeting each Saturday evening; has a Sabbath School on each Lord's day, and one preaching service. One adult and one infant have been baptized.

The work of our missionary has been seriously interfered with for the last six months by the Presbyterians of Los Angeles, who persist in maintaining a Sabbath School exclusively for the Chinese, and also by a minister in that body who has a week-day evening school for the same people. It was plainly stated that so far as Presbyterians are concerned, the United Presbyterian Church should have entire occupancy and control of the field. This opposition has seriously crippled Bro. Nevin's work. The Presbytery of San Francisco has laid the matter before the Board of Foreign Missions of that church, urgently requesting that such interference cease, or else refund the money paid and we will go elsewhere.

For the necessary expenses of the mission during the coming year, we ask an appropriation of sixteen hundred dollars ($1,600.00).

All of which is respectfully submitted.

PAPER FROM THE ASSOCIATE SYNOD CONCERNING THE DISTRIBUTION OF THE PROCEEDS OF THE SPEER ESTATE.

To the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church, in session at New Wilmington, May 30th, 1879:

The Associate Synod, by its unanimous action at the above-named place and date, agreed to present to the Assembly the following representation, viz.: A number of years prior to the formation of the United Presbyterian Church by the union of 1858, a considerable legacy was bequeathed to the Associate Church by one Daniel Speer, of Pittsburgh; and one of the objects specified in the bequest was "the education of pious young men for the ministry." The Associate Synod, in order strictly to carry out the above named object, did for some years prior to the union pay to the Trustees of the Associate Theological Seminary, located at Canonsburg, and afterward at Xenia, that portion of said legacy devoted to the education of young men for the ministry. These payments continued for more than ten years after the union. About the year 1860, at the request of the Associate Synod, the Second Synod of the United Presbyterian Church assumed the educational control of said Seminary, with the understanding that said funds had been annually paid to the Trustees of the Seminary, and the expectation that the payment would be continued, which expectation was realized up to the year 1870. In the year 1866, and annually thereafter until 1870, the sum paid from this fund to the Trustees of the Seminary was one thousand dollars. At a meeting of the Associate Synod in 1870, without any recognition of the claims of the Seminary, or obligation to the Second Synod, which the Associate Synod had requested to assume the educational control of the Seminary, the fund was paid over to the United Presbyterian Church, with the request that it should be appropriated annually to the Board of Education. The Associate Synod is now convinced that its action was without due consideration, and that by it injustice was done, not only to the Seminary at Xenia, but to the Second Synod, which was compelled to bear the principal burden of conducting the Seminary. This Synod also believes it to be more in accordance with the design of the will of the late Daniel Speer, that the fund should be appropriated to the Theological Seminaries of the church. In this belief the Associate Church originally entrusted with this legacy appropriated its proceeds to her Seminary for many years prior to the union. These proceeds now amount annually to the sum of two thousand dollars. The Associate Synod therefore respectfully request the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church to consider the matter here presented, and if in accordance with her wisdom to adopt the following resolution, or something equivalent thereto, viz.:

Resolved, That the Board of Education be directed to pay to the Trustees of Xenia Theological Seminary, out of the funds of the Speer estate, transferred to them by the Associate Synod in 1870, the sum of one thousand dollars annually, to be used in assisting pious young men in preparation for the gospel ministry.

Respectfully submitted,

By order of the Synod.

HISTORICAL RECORD OF THE PRESBYTERIES AND SYNODS OF THE ASSOCIATE AND ASSOCIATE REFORMED CHURCHES.

The following record of the organization of the Presbyteries and Synods of the Associate and Associate Reformed Churches, and of the changes through which they passed, was prepared by the Second Clerk, and is now published by the direction of the General Assembly, vol. 3, p. 138, vol. 4, p. 594, and vol. 5, p. 40.

In consequence of the loss of many important records it is not possible to make it complete, but it is believed to be sufficiently so for practical purposes. The cordial co-operation of many brethren is gratefully acknowledged.

The union of 1858, by which the United Presbyterian Church was formed, did not affect the organization and the legal relations and powers of the Synods and Presbyteries of the churches entering into it. In the adopting act it was agreed "that the respective Presbyteries of these churches shall remain as at present constituted, until otherwise ordered, as convenience shall suggest;" and in defining the organization of the General Assembly and the subordinate Synods, it was "provided that the separate Synods and Presbyteries of the said Associate Reformed and Associate Churches shall also continue as at present constituted until otherwise directed."—Digest, p. 222.

According to this act some of these bodies continue to meet and transact business relating to trusts in their care; some being without special trusts, formally dissolved; but the majority simply adjourned to meet at the call of the Moderator or at a given time, but have either not since met or have failed to keep a record of their proceedings. They continue to have a nominal legal existence.

THE ASSOCIATE CHURCH.

This act was condemned by the Synod, but the relation was not dissolved by the Presbytery. May 20, 1776, divided by the organization of the Presbytery of New Presbyteries: Cambridge, Philadelphia, Chartiers and Kentucky. The action of the Synod on slavery in 1838 resulted in the separation and suspension of the Presbytery of the Carolinas. In 1838 parts of the Presbyteries of Albany and Cambridge refused submission to certain acts of the Synod, and maintained separate organizations. In 1840 the Presbytery of Vermont refused to acknowledge an order declaring its dissolution and suspending its members. June 15, 1841, at Cambridge, N. Y., these constituted a Synod, bearing the name of The Associate Synod of North America. May 31, 1854, a reunion was effected. May 26, 1858, at Pittsburgh, Pa., entered into union with the General Synod of the Associate Reformed Church, and constituted The United Presbyterian Church of North America. Annual meetings were held until May 31, 1870, when the following order was adopted: "That the Moderator and Clerk be continued in office until their successors are elected, and that they, together with the Board of Trustees of the Synod, are hereby empowered to call future meetings of this Synod; and of such meetings notice shall be given not less than one month previously, in the periodicals and papers of the church. The time and place of such meetings shall be the same as those of the General Assembly." May 30, 1879, adjourned to meet at Xenia, O., at 1 P. M., May 27, 1880.

THE REFORMED CHURCH.

November 29, 1781, agreed upon the basis for union with the Presbyteries of the Associate Church, to constitute The Associate Reformed Church. This basis was prepared at a general meeting of the three Presbyteries, held at Pequa, Pa., in the spring of 1779. It was adopted by the Presbytery of New York in the spring of 1780; by the Presbytery of Pennsylvania, June 13, 1782.

THE ASSOCIATE REFORMED CHURCH.

PRESBYTERIES.

The several Presbyteries entering the union met in Synod October 31, 1782, according to the agreement of a convention previously held. One of the first acts of the Synod was the perfecting of the union by a rearrangement of the ministers and congregations into Presbyteries designated the First, the Second and the Third. All processes and other matters depending in the several Presbyteries, before the erection of the Synod, were ordered to be brought to an issue by the Presbyteries as newly constituted.

The First.—Organized ———, from the Reformed Presbytery and the Presbytery of Pennsylvania, by act of the Synod which met October 31, 1782. Ministers: John Cuthbertson, D. Telfair, J. Proudfit and J. Smith. Territory: the congregations in Pennsylvania east of the Susquehanna river. October 1, 1786, by act of Synod May 31, 1786, the territory was enlarged so as to include the congregations in the State of New York, and the name was changed to the Presbytery of New York. (See New York.)

The Second.—Organized ———, from the Reformed Presbytery and the Presbytery of Pennsylvania, by act of the Synod of 1782. Ministers: Matthew Henderson, John Rodgers, J. Murray, William Logan, Matthew Lind and Alexander Dobbin. Territory: the congregations in "West Pennsylvania," that is, west of the Susquehanna river. The Presbytery was properly the continuation of the Presbytery of Pennsylvania; and, therefore, the Synod, by act of May 31, 1786, restored the name Pennsylvania. (See Pennsylvania.)

The Third.—Organized ———, from the Presbytery of New York, by the act of the Synod of 1782. Ministers: John Mason, Robert Annan, David Annan and Thomas Clark. Territory: the churches in New York and the adjacent States. This Presbytery was properly the continuation of the Presbytery of New York. By the act of the Synod which met May 31, 1786, the congregations in New England were, from October 1, 1786, separated and designated the Presbytery of Londonderry, (see Londonderry,) and Rev. John Mason and J. Proudfit, (now of Salem, N. Y.,) and their congregations and contiguous vacancies were annexed to the First Presbytery, and the name of the First was changed to the Presbytery of New York. (See The First and New York.)

Pennsylvania.—The original organization was in November, 1753. (See Associate, Pennsylvania.) June 13, 1782, the majority entered into union with the Reformed Presbytery. The congregations of the United Church, west of the Susquehanna river, were, by the Synod of 1782, constituted the Second Presbytery. (See The Second.) By act of the Synod of 1786 the name Pennsylvania was restored. June 24, 1792, divided by the organization of the Second Presbytery of Pennsylvania, and the name changed to the First Presbytery of Pennsylvania. By act of Synod, October 22, 1802, divided into the Presbyteries of Big Spring and Philadelphia, in order to constitute the Synod of Pennsylvania. (See Big Spring and Philadelphia.)

New York.—The original organization was May 20, 1776, from the Presbytery of Pennsylvania. (See Associate, New York.) In the rearrangement of the Presbyteries by the Synod of 1782, it was styled the Third Presbytery. (See The Third.) Reorganized October 4, 1786, in New York, as the Presbytery of New York, by order of the Synod of 1786, from the First and Third Presbyteries, including all the congregations in the State of New York, and in Pennsylvania east of the Susquehanna river, and Hanover west of it. (See The First.) July 14, 1794, divided by the organization of the Presbytery of Washington. The congregations in Pennsylvania were subsequently transferred to the Presbytery of Pennsylvania. After the defection of the Presbytery of Philadelphia, in 1822, the jurisdiction was again, 1830, extended to Eastern Pennsylvania. August 7, 1845, divided by the organization of the Presbytery of Philadelphia, and July 11, 1854, by the organization of the Presbytery of Boston. The majority refused to enter the union of 1858, and attempted to maintain a separate existence. The minority were recognized by the Synod as the Presbytery of New York. September 12, 1876, adjourned to meet at the call of the Moderator or Clerk.

Londonderry.—May 31, 1786, certain congregations in Boston and Londonderry having been received by the Third Presbytery, the Synod divided the Presbytery, (see the Third,) the congregations in New England to be known, after October 1, as the Presbytery of Londonderry. Ministers: David Annan, Wm. Morrison and Samuel Taggart. The Synod which met October 19, 1791, changed the name to the Presbytery of New England, but it continued to be popularly known by its former name. May 30, 1801, in consequence of the defection of the Presbytery from the principles of the church, and insubordination to Synod, the Synod declared the Presbytery no longer in its connection, and disclaimed all responsibility for any of its transactions.

The Carolinas and Georgia.—Organized February 24, 1790, at ———, by order of the Synod. Ministers: Thomas Clarke, Peter McMillan, David Bothwell, John Boyse, and John Rogers—(licentiate). Territory: the congregations in North Carolina, South Carolina, and Georgia. October —, 1800, divided for the organization of the Second Presbytery of the Carolinas, and thereafter known as STATISTICS OF THE ASSOCIATE AND ASSOCIATE REFORMED CHURCHES.

The Associate Synod began to publish statistical reports about the year 1821. The Associate Reformed Synod of 1801, and several General Synods, published reports, but they are very defective. The Synod of the West, for a few years, beginning with 1827, published irregular and defective reports. The General Synod did not, for several years after its organization publish any statistics. The following table, prepared from the published reports and from various records and incidental sources, may be taken as approximately correct, and shows the growth of the churches.

6. STATISTICS OF MISSIONARY SOCIETIES.

N. B.—A * affixed to the name indicates that the Society is organized for work in the congregation. Contributions for other objects than Foreign Missions, Home Missions, Freedmen's Missions and Church Extension, are arranged under a general heading. When the particular is known, it is given in the address column, and reference is made to it by a †.

A ‡ prefixed to the number of members, indicates that the number was not reported, and is therefore estimated; prefixed to contributions, it shows that the aggregate was reported, but not the distribution to the several funds.
